Q. What did he say about your gambling places?
A. In March he came to me, March last year.

Q. What did he say to him and what did he say to you?
A. Well, he came to me at my place. He said to me, "You got games going?" I say, "Yes." He

Q. Did he tell you who you would be protected from or what the protection was for?
A. He no say nothing about that. He just say, "Little protection for you."

Q. Did you have a talk with Dave Cockrell some time previous to this about his renting a house of yours to run for gambling purposes in Chinatown?
A. Yes, he come down to my house and asked to get a house in there to start gambling.

Q. Did you rent a house to Cockrell?
A. Yes, he come down to my house and asked to get a house in there to start gambling.

Q. What did Cockrell do in this house? What was it used for?
A. He used it "twenty-one game." I don't understand that game.

Q. What did he play "21" with?
A. He played it with cards, poker cards, one fellow deal.

Q. After you quit paying to Cockrell what happened with regard to your place?
A. After we quit paying in September Cockrell no come get that money any more. Afterward Captain Brown coming down, drive all people out of gambling house and card room, and all people driven into street.

Q. Did you see Captain Brown in Chinatown shortly after September 1?
A. Yes, he come down. I say, "How are you, captain?" He say, "Hello, Sam Kee. You own this 'little' place?" He say, "You know it ever since earthquake?" He say, "Well, never mind. You got to pay $100 a month each house. I want four months in advance. If you don't give me you can't run. I say, 'Oh, Captain Brown, I don't know what I'm going to do.' He say, 'Well, you go talk to Cockrell. No talk to me no more.'"

Q. Where did you have this talk?
A. In my gambling house, inside.

Q. After you had this talk, did you have a talk with Dave Cockrell?
A. Yes, he come down. I have talk with him. He come down that same night about 10 o'clock. He come to my restaurant, Republic Cafe, Eleventh and Franklin.

Q. What did he say to you and what did you say to him?
A. I said to him, "He say to me, 'Captain Brown sent me down to see you.' He say, 'I want to get $100 each house each month.' I say, 'I can't do it, too much. To-day he talk to me, he want $400 each house, he want him in advance, he want me pay him all together. I say I can't do it. I can't do any more.' He say all right we close up."

Q. Was it Cockrell said you must close up or did you say it?
A. I said it. I said, "We close up, we no run at all; no can pay."

Q. What did Cockrell say to that?
A. He no say nothing; he just go away.

Q. Did you pay him anything that night?
A. No, I no give him any.

Q. This Captain Brown who came to you. Was he a police captain on the Oakland force?
A. Yes, sir.

Q. At this point the noon recess was taken.

DEFENSE WIN POINT IN CONSPIRACY CONTENTION.
Crosby forged the first link in the chain of evidence to support his conspiracy charge when he secured from Ernest Lun yesterday an admission to intimacy with both Captain Walter J. Petersen, whom Crosby charged with being chief plotter against Nedderman, and Captain Charles H. Rock.

Lun admitted being conducted to the district attorney's office before the grand jury investigation by Captain Petersen, as well as to recent conversations with Petersen and a long standing acquaintanceship with both men.

QUESTIONS TO SHERIFF ADMITTED BY COURT.
Sheriff R. R. Veale's testimony was admitted by the court in the afternoon session, at least the two or three questions which the prosecution put. In the forenoon session they had been objected to by Crosby and, for the moment, he had been sustained. A portion of the afternoon was spent by counsel and judge in chambers, after which Sheriff Veale was allowed to say that he had seen the former chief of police and Cockrell together at Byron Hot Springs and that he had talked to both of them there.

In the cross examination to which he was next subjected there were a number of facts asked by Crosby which the sheriff could not remember. Whether he had invited Nedderman, Cockrell and their party to dinner at the springs was one of these. He said he was present when Cockrell arrived at the springs, but he did not know with whom he arrived, how he arrived or in whose company, other than Nedderman's, he had seen him.

The conclusion of the sheriff's visit to the courtroom assumed almost the appearance of a social affair. The Contra Costa executive has been a friend of long standing with most of the attaches of the courtroom as well as the defendant and counsel for both sides and the court. He spent some moments in shaking hands about the court as a recess was called, and was pleasantly greeted by Nedderman, against whom he had just been testifying, as well as Mrs. Nedderman and Crosby.

KNOW COCKRELL UNDER ANOTHER NAME.
District Attorney Decoto produced in court, though he did not offer it in evidence, the register of Byron Hot Springs for January 26, and 27 of this year. Under the former date appears the signature of Mr. and Mrs. Nedderman, and under the latter that of Harry Hearn, under which name is alleged Cockrell registered at the resort. H. Lambert, porter and mail clerk at the springs, was put on the stand.

He said he knew Nedderman; had known him since January 26, on which day he arrived with Mrs. Nedderman at the springs. He said he came there in an automobile. Asked if he knew "a man known as Dave Cockrell," he replied:

"Yes, I met him this morning at the Hotel Oakland. That was the first time I had known him by the name of Cockrell."

Lambert's testimony proceeded as follows, under Decoto questioning:

Q. Was Cockrell at Byron Hot Springs while Nedderman was there?
A. Yes. Nedderman arrived on the 26th, Cockrell on the 27th.

Q. Did they both leave on the same day?
A. Yes, the same day, by automobile.

Q. Did they leave in the same automobile?
A. I do not remember.

Q. State what were their habits of association while there, as far as you know. State what they did as far as you saw them.

A. They were there as friends. They ate together at the same table; they visited each other's rooms; they were riding together. One day in particular I know they were going to Stockton. I heard them say they were going to Stockton, at any rate, and they left the hotel to go there.

On cross examination he said that their table parties included Mr. and Mrs. Nedderman, Cockrell and "another lady, a friend."

SECOND CHINESE WITNESS QUESTIONED.
Ernest Lun, who is known popularly through the Asiatic quarter as "Little Ernest," was the second Chinese to be put on the stand by the prosecution, the first having been Mr. May. Like Joe Crosby, he came dressed in American clothes. His English pronunciation was superior to that of Joe and court and counsel experienced less difficulty in understanding him. Explanation of this fact developed in his testimony that he was American born, 40 years of age and had only been in China on one occasion, a year's visit about 1905.

Lun's testimony drew from Crosby the same steady punctuation of objections which was a feature of Joe's period on the stand. Crosby re-raged across the boy. About a year later he went to China, whence he returned about 1908, and soon after that launched himself in the laundry business. The cross-examination, under Crosby's guidance, proceeded as follows:

Q. Who was chief of police when you started the laundry business?
A. I think it was Wilson.

Q. Do you know Captain Petersen?
A. Yes.

Q. Did you run any lotteries while Petersen was chief of police?

A. I did just a little business.
Q. Do you know Captain Bock?
A. Yes. I know him since about 1910.

Q. Who served the subpoena on you in this case?
A. Captain Bock.

Q. Who in the grand jury hearing?
A. Captain Petersen.

Q. Did you talk to anybody before you went before the grand jury?
A. Yes, sir, the district attorney.

Q. Where did you see him?
A. I come right up here to see him; right up here (motioning toward the door to the district attorney's office).

Q. Who brought you up here?
A. Captain Petersen.

Q. After you were subpoenaed by Captain Bock to testify here have you talked with Captain Petersen?
A. Yes. I talked to him yesterday. I met him in front of the city hall.

Q. How long did you talk to him?
A. Just a few minutes. Just to say "How d'ye do" and ask him about selling fireworks.

Q. How long did you talk to him?
A. About ten minutes. No, maybe three, four minutes.

Q. Is it not the truth that you were in earnest conversation with Captain Petersen before the city hall yesterday for almost half an hour?
A. No, sir, only few minutes.

Q. Have you talked with Captain Bock since he served the subpoena?
A. Two, three days ago in Chinatown.

Q. Do you belong to the Bing Kong tong?
A. Yes.

Q. Do you belong to any other tongs?
A. Yes, sir. Suey Sing tong.

Q. Does the Suey Sing have headquarters in Oakland?
A. Yes, sir. Seventh and Franklin streets. I don't know number.

Q. Never paid any attention to the number.
Q. Did you ever meet Captain Bock at the headquarters of the Suey Sing tong?
A. Don't remember if I ever saw him up there. Maybe I see him, maybe not. I can't remember.

Q. Did you ever meet Captain Petersen at his home?
A. No.

The subsequent cross-examination related largely to the houses which Lun had maintained. Asked what places he had, Lun professed inability to understand the term "run a house."

"When District Attorney Decoto asked you about running houses, you knew what he meant," Crosby shot at him.

He offered grand jury transcript to Lun to show where he had testified to running houses.

ONE OF WOMAN'S GLORIES... A LOVELY COMPLEXION
WOMAN was created beautiful, and it is her duty to maintain and to enhance, if possible, that which she has been endowed. Aside from the grace of mind and soul which every woman possesses, her complexion is her greatest charm. Many aids or more or less value have been offered to help woman to maintain and to promote the natural beauty and transparency of her skin. It has remained, however, for Santiseptic Lotion to furnish the simple, the natural, the stimulus to Nature in keeping woman beautiful. Santiseptic clears and whitens the skin; it acts as a gentle astringent to close up enlarged pores and it takes on the "shine," giving the skin that permanent soft, velvety texture which everyone so much admires. Santiseptic also will remove the skin from the effects of outdoor exposure. It prevents and corrects the discolorations and the blemishes caused by sunburn and windburn, tan and freckles; it is good for any skin affection, no matter what its nature or cause may be. Take a bottle of Santiseptic when you go on your next outdoor trip. You will find many uses for it. Use it every day and insure an attractive and healthy skin. Santiseptic is prepared with powder in tints of white, flesh and brunette. You can procure Santiseptic at almost any Oakland drug store or department store.—Advertisement.

INCREASE WEIGHT AND VITALITY WITH PHOSPHATE

Nothing Like Plain Bitro-Phosphate to Put on Firm, Healthy Flesh and to Increase Strength, Vigor and Nerve Force.

The average person is beginning to realize more and more that the lack of physical strength and nerve exhaustion (frequently evidenced by excessive tiredness) are the direct cause not only of the failure to succeed in life's struggle for the necessities of existence, but also for the handicap in one's social aspirations. Compare the thin, sickly, angular frame with the well-rounded form which is usually accompanied by the bloom of health and attractiveness.

At the seaside too, the plump well-rounded figure is most admired.

That millions of people are conscious of this handicap is evident from the continued appearance in newspapers and magazines of many suggestions for procuring various remedies in food or medicine or exercises, either of which might or might not be appropriate for a given case.

Authorities, however, agree that healthy nerve tissue is absolutely essential to a robust body and mind. Weak nerves, while indicated by a multitude of different symptoms, immediately and generally result in lack of energy, sleeplessness, irritability, depression, etc., which conditions gradually consume the health.

Weak nerves, however, are not the only cause of this handicap. A flat chest, bony neck and scrawny arms and legs, and many other conditions, are the result of a deficiency in the phosphorus element which may be taken into the human system that so effectively supplies this deficiency as the pure organic phosphate known as bitro-phosphate and sold by The Owl Drug Co. in Oakland, Cal., and all good druggists everywhere.

The essential phosphorus food element in bitro-phosphate assimilated by the nerve cells soon produces a pleasing change in the health, increasing vitality and strength. With the burdens of nervousness, sleeplessness, lack of energy, etc., lifted, one's weight with its attractive fullness and ruddy glow of health replaces the former picture.

Although Bitro-Phosphate is unexcelled for the relief of nervousness and attendant disorders, owing to its tendency to increase weight, one should watch the scales while taking it unless it is the desire to put on flesh.

Careless Shampooing Spoils the Hair

"Soap should be used very carefully, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it."

The best thing to do is use a mild, natural coconut oil shampoo (which is pure and gentle), and is better than anything else you can use.

Care or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply massage the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rises out easily, removing every particle of dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Mulstead coconut oil shampoo at any pharmacy, it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.—Advertisement.

PHONE STRIKE MAY SOON BE OVER, BELIEF

Telephone company officials intimated today they expect word from the east at any hour which will enable them to make a proposal to the striking operators that is expected to settle the strike which is now in its seventeenth day.

They were indefinite regarding the nature of the communication believed to be coming, but a general air of optimism pervaded the situation.

Some leaders declare the situation is improved by the entry into the negotiations of First Assistant Postmaster General John C. Koons. According to a telegram received by Mayor James Rolph of San Francisco from Senator James D. Pheelan, Koons expects the strike to be over very soon. He is now said to be attempting the adjustment of the operation of the telephone company in a retroactive to January 1.

Koons is said to have been a lifesaver in the recent telephone strike in New England states, after Burlington had failed to reach an agreement with the unions. Koons granted substantial concessions to the strikers.

PRECEDENT SET. That the company will concede the retroactive demand which is one of the primary reasons for the deadlock is forecasted by International Secretary Charles P. Ford who is one of those in conference with Assistant Postmaster General Koons. It has already been granted by the company to the Boston telephone operators and has thus established a precedent which Ford expects shortly to be ordered here on the Pacific coast by Postmaster General Bureleson.

The status of the telephone and telegraph operators' strike remains unchanged insofar as the local situation is concerned. Rumors that a compromise was under consideration and that the girls would return to their switchboards is physically denied by labor leaders.

DENY DESERTION RUMOR. Word reached the labor leaders that operators now employed by the company, taking advantage of the decreased demands for service over the Fourth, will be used to mingle with the strikers for the purpose of breaking their morale.

Announcement that 40 desertions were made from the union ranks by those who returned to work in Los Angeles were utterly unfounded, commented C. A. Jordan this morning. "Confidential word from the south tells us that Los Angeles is standing pat in their demands."

An assessment of $5 a member was levied last night by Local 283, Electrical Workers, to finance the strike. An important decision was reached when the resolution was adopted providing for presentation to kindred organizations the matter of service of power companies to the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph buildings. A vote will be requested by these groups. Members of Local 283 expressed confidence in concerted action.

A grand ball will be given by the San Francisco telephone operators' union tonight at the Civic Auditorium in that city. Thousands of tickets have been sold, it is reported. Talent from San Francisco theaters will provide entertainment.

Clubwomen of Oakland entered the strike situation as factors today when representatives from the telephone company and the unions were invited, together with Mayor John L. Davis and Dr. Jessica Pitts, to the University of California, to present the situation and the solutions.

Sarr King hall, Fourteenth and Castro streets, was thronged with prominent women leaders. Among the speakers were C. A. Jordan, business agent Local 283; Miss Lillian Blewer, international representative and business agent for the local telephone girls; and Miss Wood, speaking from the standpoint of a business woman.

The canteen maintained on the top floor of the Pacific Building, Sixteenth and Jefferson streets, is serving the 900 striking operators with hot meals. The young women are giving a benefit picnic at East Shore Park tomorrow, thereby swelling funds to maintain their position.

Reports have come to the strike leaders that the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company officials in charge of employment bureau, had been told to use the unsuccessful termination of the telegraphers' strike as propaganda in an endeavor to create a similar dissension among the striking telephone operators.

The Pacific Coast telephone strike, in this connection the following warning was issued today by International Vice-President L. C. Grasser of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers to all of the local presidents and secretaries in the states of California, Oregon, Washington, Nevada and Idaho.

"There is no connection between the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers and the Commercial Telegraphers' Union. This attempt by the telephone company to connect the two, seeking to show that our own strike has been, or is about to be broken, and that we will surrender is untrue propaganda. I wish also to warn all of the members of this organization who are on strike against reports that there are desertions from our ranks. This is merely an attempt to discourage those members of the organization in the outlying districts and states away from the central strike committee which is handling the controversy here, and should be ignored. There have been no desertions from our ranks, on the contrary the strikebreakers employed by the company are deserting faster than others can be employed to replace them."

"Our position is stronger today and the company's service to the public is poorer than at any time since the strike was called June 16 and this applies to the entire five states where the company gives service."

The company officials refused to comment on the statement of Grasser. The strikers' conference committee will meet this afternoon in the assembly hall of the Pacific Building to discuss the matter of calling out the employees of the hydro-electric companies, as suggested by the Oakland local. If these men walk out in a sympathetic strike telephone company, it is said, would be without electric energy to give any service.

The Idaho Supreme Court in a recent decision made $1,250,000 state funds immediately available for improvement of highways and other work.

Typewriter Duel on at City Hall Soderberg and Higgins in Clash

Preston Higgins, secretary to Mayor John L. Davis, and Commissioner Fred Soderberg have entered the lists as epistolary duelists. The cause belli is a remark Higgins acknowledges having made concerning the free use of the auditorium, a subject that Commissioner Soderberg has interjected into the council forum.

Whether the weapons should be likened to broad swords or repairs is left to the judgment of the reader, who herewith is given opportunity of classifying the word-weapon skill of each combatant. The other members of the city government are waiting for further evidence of prowess before making a decision as to the victor, the epistles being placed on the table.

SODERBERG BROADSIDE. Commissioner Soderberg made the first offensive in a letter to the Council on June 19. I discharged the chief clerk in my department for the good of the service. The discharge was made by me after careful consideration and in accordance with my best judgment. I was fully aware at the time that the grounds for making the discharge were subject to the review of the Civil Service Board under Section 82 of the City Charter. Accordingly, I am prepared to present all of the facts and reasons for my official action to that Board at a proper time.

"Meanwhile, I have noted in the public press that the secretary of the Mayor has assumed to state the reasons for my action. He has stated that in the past the Mayor has brought resolutions into the City Council over the head of the Commissioner of Public Works, directing an assignment of the use of the auditorium to certain organizations, that I have probably taken offense at the Mayor for such action and have erroneously implicated the chief clerk in the matter."

"Thus it appears that subordinate in the Mayor's office has undertaken to criticize a commissioner of this city in the conduct of his separate department. I shall not at this time undertake to discuss the merits of my action, or the substantial grounds for the discharge, as that is a matter which will be taken up in regular course before the civil service board."

"The thing of vastly greater importance to this city administration is the fact that a subordinate in the Mayor's office should show such boldness as to criticize a commissioner of this city in the public press for performing his official duty."

"I have communicated these matters to this city council at this time so that it may be fully advised. While I do not intend to ask for official action now, nevertheless, I do request that this information be made a matter of official record at this time for future consideration."

HIGGINS' COUNTER THREAT. Without attempting to parry Higgins delivered his trusty thrust: "My Dear Sir:—You have childishly taken into the city council a communication calling attention to what you term 'bold criticism' on my part relative to granting the free use of the auditorium, a function belonging to you, but in which your action or inaction has caused at times a shift of necessity to the department of public affairs. You evidently mean that I have been telling the truth in answer to the inquiries from press representatives."

"If you have such a high regard for inter-departmental silence, why your attitude of May 9th, 1918. You were then commissioner of streets and Perry Brown your superintendent of streets. Mr. Brown deliberately issued a statement to the press severely condemning the entire council, you excepted of course, for their efforts to effect war-time economy. Commissioner Edwards called him to due in open council and Mayor Davis asked him to resign. You chuckled in contemptuous delight and backed Brown to the letter, and if you conveniently forget this incident it will refresh your memory to read the Oakland papers of May 9th, 1918."

"Mr. Brown's statement was a calculated criticism of the city council's jurisdiction. It came from a clear sky and with a staunch backing of the department head who either ordered it out of cowardice or approved it by considerate accord."

"The statements I have made have been in answer to inquiries from the public press. I have told the truth when you would have me keep silent and share your responsibility. At no time have I promoted any criticism toward you or your office. Your position is yours and mine is mine. You may understand me better when I declare that whether I am secretary of streets or occupy the highest or lowest position in public or private life, I shall answer all inquiries with the standard of truth from my guide, and you or no others will deter me."

MILWAUKEE, Wis., July 3.

Save the Babies

INFANT MORTALITY is something frightful. We can hardly realize that of all the children born in civilized countries, twenty-two per cent., or nearly one-quarter, die before they reach one year; thirty-seven per cent., or more than one-third, before they are five; and one-half before they are fifteen!

We do not hesitate to say that a timely use of Castoria would save many of these precious lives. Neither do we hesitate to say that many of these infantile deaths are occasioned by the use of narcotic preparations. Drops, tinctures and soothing syrups sold for children's complaints contain more or less opium or morphine. They are, in considerable quantities, deadly poisons. In any quantity, they stupefy, retard circulation and lead to congestion, sickness, death. There can be no danger in the use of Castoria if it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

As it contains no opiates or narcotics of any kind.

Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

The selling price of water is fixed by the rate-fixing body—the State Railroad Commission.

This rate cannot be varied to follow the law of supply and demand—but is definitely fixed, based on the actual cost of—

1. Gathering water
2. Storing water
3. Transportation of water
4. Distribution of water
5. Money

Water, as you will note, must be manufactured (i. e., gathered or pumped from the ground), stored in warehouses (as Lake Chabot), transported (pumped) to Central Distributing Reservoirs and finally distributed to customers.

Different advertisements of this series will discuss these important phases of the selling price of water. Watch for and read them.

MOONEY STRIKE CLAIMS VARY AS DAY NEARS

One million workers will begin tomorrow a five-day strike as a protest against refusal of California courts to grant a new trial to Thomas J. Mooney, convicted in San Francisco of murder in connection with the "Preparedness Day" bomb explosion, a statement today from the International Workers' Defense League said. The defense league has been conducting the campaign to free Mooney and Warren K. Billings, also serving a life sentence for murder.

Fifteen hundred local unions in the United States and Canada have voted in favor of the strike, Felix Schulberg of the Defense League's executive committee said, and two international organizations, the Jewelry Workers and Custom Tailors, voted to go out as a unit.

Fourteen unions about the bay will respond to the call, it was said, and much in Los Angeles and the California oil fields contemplated quitting work.

CHICAGO, July 3.—An official order issued here today by F. W. Bowman, secretary of the Chicago Mooney-Defense League, called upon all workers to "lay down tools" for four days starting tomorrow, and to "demand fair and impartial trials for Thomas J. Mooney and Warren K. Billings, now imprisoned for life by framed-up testimony."

It was indicated that labor generally would ignore the order.

MOONEY STRIKE CLAIMS VARY AS DAY NEARS

One million workers will begin tomorrow a five-day strike as a protest against refusal of California courts to grant a new trial to Thomas J. Mooney, convicted in San Francisco of murder in connection with the "Preparedness Day" bomb explosion, a statement today from the International Workers' Defense League said. The defense league has been conducting the campaign to free Mooney and Warren K. Billings, also serving a life sentence for murder.

Fifteen hundred local unions in the United States and Canada have voted in favor of the strike, Felix Schulberg of the Defense League's executive committee said, and two international organizations, the Jewelry Workers and Custom Tailors, voted to go out as a unit.

Fourteen unions about the bay will respond to the call, it was said, and much in Los Angeles and the California oil fields contemplated quitting work.

CHICAGO, July 3.—An official order issued here today by F. W. Bowman, secretary of the Chicago Mooney-Defense League, called upon all workers to "lay down tools" for four days starting tomorrow, and to "demand fair and impartial trials for Thomas J. Mooney and Warren K. Billings, now imprisoned for life by framed-up testimony."

It was indicated that labor generally would ignore the order.

TOOTH BRUSHES FROM FRANCE

Bought Before the War. Hard to Duplicate Now.

When you stop to consider that the best brushes for tooth brushing are made in France, you can imagine the difficulty of procuring good brushes at the present time.

Very fortunately before the big war started, we laid in a tremendous stock of these splendid imported French-made brushes. This stock has lasted us through the war and still remains in good quantities.

We doubt if we had to go into the wholesale market today, whether we could get tooth brushes as good as these at any price. These brushes sell for 50c each and are boxed under the name of "Lister Brand." Dentists have said that these Lister Brushes are dentally correct because they are so arranged that the bristles get into the depressions of the teeth and clean the mouth thoroughly.

If you want the best tooth brush that your money can buy, select one of these. They come in several sizes with hard, medium or soft bristles.

YOUR BABY FOOD

Have you a baby?

Do you use baby food?

If so, what precautions do you take in purchasing it?

Baby food deteriorates just the same as other food products and your baby will get along a good deal better if you make sure you get good fresh baby food.

We sell great quantities of baby food and carry it in a big variety but we always carry a small amount of each kind so that we can order frequently.

The temptation to buy baby food in big quantities and save money on wholesale costs never appeals to Bowman's.

Why Bowman's? Because he, as well as every other person in Oakland, knows that at Bowman's you will get the best to be over. You will not be over-charged and that he can expect the best results from such a prescription.

Milwaukee will have no Mooney strike tomorrow. The Federated Council, with 150 trades represented, last night voted against the move. The police are confident at a mass meeting of 3000 union men and women here last night.

The Mooney strike committee, consisting of one representative of each union in the city, will meet tonight to decide whether Portland unions shall join in the walkout.

WHAT DOES YOUR DOCTOR ADVISE?

Doesn't This Sound Like Him?

When your doctor gives you a prescription to be filled, he expects you to get the purest, freshest and best ingredients money can buy. He expects that you will have that prescription compounded by a reliable, graduate pharmacist who will conscientiously see that you get the best grade of all ingredients.

If you ask your doctor where to go, he will probably say "Oh, any good, reliable druggist." If you insist upon him giving you the name of such a druggist, he will probably answer "Bowman's."

Why Bowman's? Because he, as well as every other person in Oakland, knows that at Bowman's you will get the best to be over. You will not be over-charged and that he can expect the best results from such a prescription.

SEEK NEW USES FOR WINE GRAPES

Four thousand acres of land in Alameda county are devoted to the growing of wine grapes, and the finest wine in the world is made here, according to County Horticultural Commissioner Fred Seuberg, who says that France is a heavy buyer of the product of the wineries of this county. He expresses the belief that these grapes can be successfully used for other purposes than wine making. Experiments along that line are now being made. Alameda county also leads all other counties of the state in the production of apricots, cherries, currants, and pears. Seuberg says there are 6600 acres in pears in this county and nearly every other variety of vegetable grows in profu-

Peanut Hunt Will Open Holiday Playgrounds Are Planning Programs

With parades, flag raisings, patriotic songs, patriotic programs, drills, sports, boxing, races and ball games in the morning and afternoon and bonfires and fireworks in the evening, the playgrounds of Oakland will stage community celebrations of the Fourth of July tomorrow. News of Wedding Reaches East Bay Friends

Formal announcement of the wedding of Miss Berkeley Howell, former head of the department of music at the Chico High School, and Ensign F. Gustafson, was made known the first of the week at a dinner given by the mother of the bride at the Howell home in Berkeley. The ceremony was performed in San Rafael, July 29, 1918 and known only to the immediate family and close friends of the bride who carefully guarded the secret.

Young Gustafson before the war was connected with the Central National bank in this city and since his discharge from the service has resumed his post at the local bank.

The bridegroom was one of the first to answer the call to colors flag in this city and since then ordered to New York. When granted a furlough he came west to visit his bride at Chico.

Mrs. Gustafson is a very well known in musical circles here and over the bay where she is a member of the Mansfield club. She is a graduate of the class of 1918 of Mills College.

Mr. and Mrs. Welles Hollister Newlands have given up their apartments in San Francisco and have taken a house for the season at Mill Valley.

Mrs. Alice Buteau and Miss Helene Buteau left yesterday to spend the holidays across the bay as the guests of Lieutenant and Mrs. Frank MacDonald Ogden.

EN ROUTE TO NEW YORK.
Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Volkman (Beatrice Simpson) are en route to New York, having spent the past fortnight at the Alhambra in Los Angeles. After a month's stay in the east they will return to spend the latter part of the season at the Volkman country place at Woodside.

WEDDING SURPRISE TO EAST BAY FRIENDS.
A surprise to the college set was the marriage of Miss Judith Emery and Earl Bryant, graduate of the University of California with the class of '15. The service was performed by Rev. C. L. Thacker, rector of St. John's Episcopal church in San Francisco, an old friend of the family.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. C. M. Jenkins of Virginia street, Berkeley, the family having formerly made their home in Watsonville, where the announcement of the wedding will prove a pleasant surprise.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, William Emery, a sister, Miss Mary Emery, attended as bridesmaid and Miss Edna Bryant, sister of the groom assumed a similar role. Both were dressed in pink georgette and crepe de chine and carried arm sprays of pink roses and carnations. The bride was gowned in ivory satin trimmed in silver lace and pearls. The bride veil was caught with a wreath of orange blossoms and in the shower bouquet were brides roses, orchids and lilies of the valley.

A wedding supper was served to the thirty guests assembled—members of the two families and a few intimate friends. When Mr. and Mrs. Bryant return from a honeymoon in the southern part of the state they will make their home in Berkeley.

Mr. and Mrs. George Tyson of Alameda are sojourning at Watsonville and with them are Mr. and Mrs. Harry Welles and Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Kates.

WEDDING LATTER PART OF JULY.
The date set for the marriage of Miss Rosella Gardner and Robert Rensdorp has been set for July 26, fifty guests to be present at the ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Gardner in Vernon street. Miss Grace Gould will be maid of honor and Royal Gardner, brother of the bride-elect, best man.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Elmer Stone are now guests at the Theodore Dredge home in Adams street and plan to make their home from now on in the bay section.

1864 Germans Sail for Holland Port

CHARLESTON, S. C., July 3.—As the Princess Matoika, with 1864 Germans, slipped out of the harbor late yesterday for Holland, she passed the transport Ostego with 1000 Americans returning from France. With the sailing of the Matoika almost 3000 Germans have been repatriated through the local port.

Half of Fortune on Dinners and Dancers

NEW YORK, July 3.—It costs money to head New York society. A society leader estimated today that the late Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, leader of New York's blue bloods, spent half her $2,000,000 fortune on dinners and dances while attaining the position of leadership. The remaining million she left largely to charity, her husband and children possessing large fortunes in their own names.

Italians Protest War-Time Dry Law

SACRAMENTO, July 3.—An announcement that Sacramento residents of Italian descent would as a protest against war time prohibition decline to participate in the Independence Day parade here Friday was made by R. Giorgi, a tailor, at the meeting of the Fourth of July committee. Giorgi represented the Italian people on the committee.

POST LOSES IN LABEL SUIT.

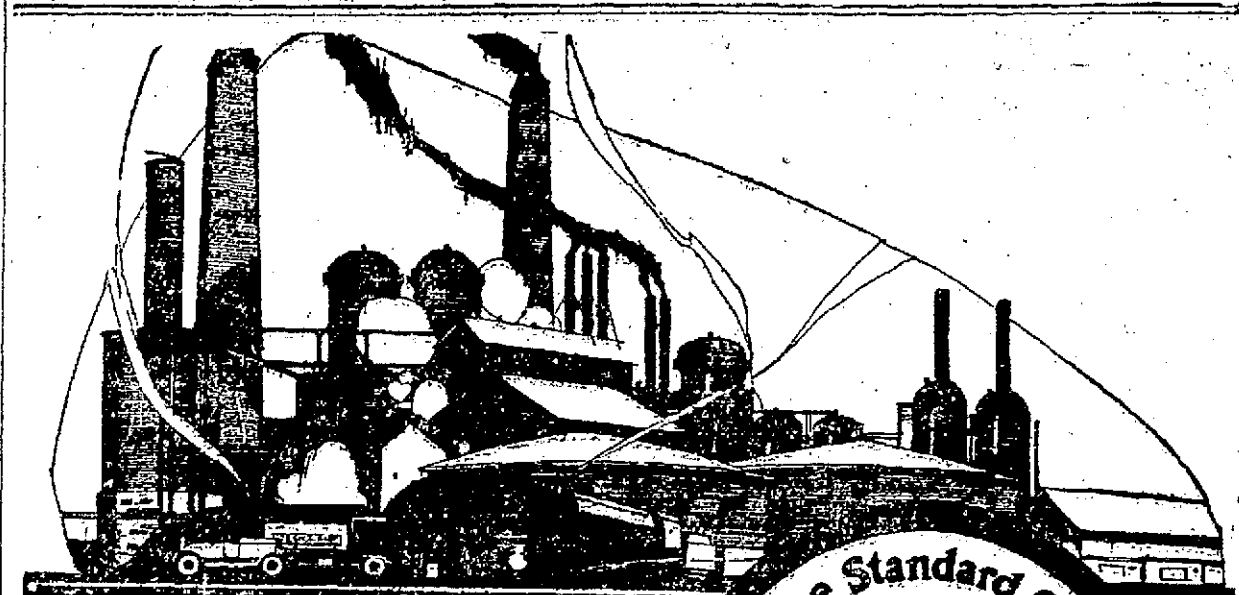

BELTON, Tex., July 3.—Former Governor James E. Ferguson was awarded a verdict for $10,000 damages against the Houston Post by a jury in the district court here today as a result of alleged libelous matter printed by that paper during the last gubernatorial race. The former governor prayed for $100,000 damages.

WOOD OUTLINES U. S. STAND.

CROOKSTON, Minn., July 3.—Declaring American soldiers would not fight at the orders of a European nation or a group of nations and declaring the red flag must be stamped out in the United States, Major General Leonard Wood made the principal address at a home coming celebration today.

Soviet Plans in German-Austria Fail

BERLIN, July 3.—The mass meeting in a supreme effort to proclaim a soviet republic in Germany, Austria, proved a fiasco. Socialist Leader Adler reported that the proletariat was opposed to the introduction of the soviet system.

TO DRAW CROWD

There are holidays and holidays, but there's one holiday that employees of The TRIBUNE are unanimous in observing. Oakland residents like to read a newspaper every day, so newspaper employees miss many of the "days off" that others enjoy, but this is one they will not miss, the sixth annual TRIBUNE outing, which will be held Sunday, July 13, at Monticello Grove.

Games, races, dancing, music, boat rides, picnicking, all the pleasures that the outing calendar knows, will be on the day's schedule. The TRIBUNE employees invite the public to join in the good time. The fare is $1.20 for adults and 60 cents for children, including the boat ride, admission to the grounds and dancing. Boats will leave the foot of Webster street at 10 in the morning.

Old clothes will be popular with the men and boys, for they expect a regular time, with eggs and spoon races, pie eating contest, sack and three-legged races, and many others.

PLEDGES OF AID

The telephone operators and electrical workers of Oakland yesterday came out in favor of the campaign which the teachers of Alameda county are making for an increased salary.

Representing the big taxpayers who will bear most of the burden of the increased salary, Irving Kahn of Kahn Brothers yesterday sent a personal endorsement to the teachers and in addition pledged his own personal services for any work that the teachers might want him to do.

The Bank of Italy and the Oakland Masonic Temple Association also passed resolutions of endorsement.

Andrew Jackson Mott is a serious minded person. What the boss tells him to do, he does to the best he can. The boss being one K. Coney, proprietor of an erstwhile Franklin street saloon, Andy has been used to mopping up various sorts of messes and liquors and he has known pretty well how to mess them.

But at last arrived July 1 and the mixtures that Andy was wont to mope up were not asked to stand Andy got used to picking the right size glass for loganberry juice and determining how much ice to put in a glass of apple cider, and how to draw a good head on a tumbler of near-beer. It hurt, but he did it, being serious minded. The crowning blow came the afternoon of the first dry day when Coney put on his hat and started for the door.

"Where you going?" asked Andy.

"I'm going to price a soda squirt," said Coney. "Do you know how to mix all those things they turn out to the kid-glove boys? If you don't, you know you might as well move on."

Andy watched the door through which the boss had departed with a sad and weary eye. In an hour the boss came back. Andy was the first to speak.

"When does my vacation begin?" he asked.

"Next Friday," was the reply.

"Well, say, Coney," he returned. "See if you can get me a book, will you, telling how to make those things. I'll take it with me and study it up on my vacation."

So now Coney pictures a dapper, but melancholy person who answers to the name of Andrew Jackson Mott, sitting on a warm, low rock by Clear Lake, dabbling his feet in the water, the white pores over recipes for peach bouquet, mellow fudge, Holland nougat, pineapple bun-bun, orange mellow cream, banana creme punch, molasses sundae and grenadine freeze.

Defenders' Club Party Will Be Tomorrow Night

All is in readiness for the big Defenders' club party tomorrow night at the local clubhouse, which is to keep open house to uniformed men and those having been discharged from service. Lunadeas will be guests at the dancing party in the evening when refreshments and favors are to be interesting features. Mrs. Robert Bray, dance hostess, will preside assisted by other members of the club. Members of the Girls' Division will assist at the dance. The ballroom and clubhouse will be in festive array, banners and flags being placed here and there throughout the clubhouse.

Lettermen hospital men are also to be guests, some 200 of them to be present during the course of the afternoon.

The Defenders' club is to remain open for the remainder of the year. It is the rendezvous for returned soldiers and those in service stationed in the nearby training camps.

Here is the week's program for the Girls' Division:

Tennis—Miss Dexter, leader, will meet the girls out for tennis this evening at 8:30 at the Lakeside courts. All who signed up, continue.

The girls of the Girls' Division War Camp Community Service will make Independence Day a continuous program of service to the boys. Open house festivities throughout the day.

GETS ABOUT NOW WITHOUT THE AID OF HER CRUTCHES

Another Detroit Resident Offers Strong Endorsement of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

"After I had been confined to my bed for an entire winter and had hobbled about for three months on crutches I began treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and am now entirely free from rheumatism."

This is the statement of Mrs. Jennie Shine of No. 614 Lafayette street, Detroit, Mich. Continuing she says: "The rheumatism followed exposure to dampness. No one can tell what pain I suffered. My joints were swollen and I was stiff and sore all over. I had shooting pains at the joints and the pains were greatest when I attempted to walk. There was a numbness in my feet and hands and my stomach was badly disordered and I couldn't eat with any comfort. I got very little rest at night because of the pain. My stomach was out of order and I lost flesh steadily."

"I had heard of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for years and decided to try the remedy. The first sign of improvement noticeable in my condition was the strengthening of my stomach. I was able to eat a hearty meal without distress. Finally the rheumatism disappeared and with it all the pain and swelling. As a result I no longer require crutches. I can do my own work, sleep well, and feel almost as strong as ever. I have told many people about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and will continue to endorse the remedy."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists or direct from the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. Price of bottle, 50 cents per box or six boxes for $2.50. Write for the free booklet, "Building Up the Blood," containing a special chapter on rheumatism.—Advertisement.

CHEAP AT $100 A BOTTLE, HE SAYS

Foreman DeHaas Places High Value on Tanlac—Is Back on Job Again.

"I am as well and strong now as I ever was in my life," said W. C. DeHaas, the well-known and popular foreman of the Libby, McNeil & Libby plant, and living at 2200 Twentieth street, Sacramento, a few days ago.

"My stomach went back on me about six months ago," continued Mr. DeHaas, "and ever since that time I have been going down hill about as fast as anybody you ever saw. I couldn't digest my food very well, and everything I ate would sour and I would be all bloated up with gas nearly all the time. I was so nervous that I couldn't still long at a time, and a couple of hours in the early part of the night was about all the sleep I could get. I have suffered from catarrh in my head for a good many years, and this seemed to get worse along with the rest of my troubles. I just gradually grew weaker all the time, and finally had to stop off from work and take special treatment. Well, all the treatment and medicine I took here in Sacramento didn't seem to do me a particle of good, so I decided to go to San Francisco and see what could be done for me there, and after spending five weeks there I came back home in a worse condition than ever. Why I was so weak and nervous that I couldn't walk half a block without stopping to rest, I tell you I was mighty blind, and was about ready to throw up the sponge when Tanlac came along, and, thanks to this wonderful medicine, I am now myself again in every way. I have only been taking Tanlac about a month, and it is remarkable the way it has put me on my feet. I am back at my work now, and just feel fine and dandy all the time. I have about gotten all my strength back, and my nerves seem to be in perfect condition, and I sleep like a log every night. Why, I have been on the go all the morning, going to the bank and other places, and this is the first time I have stopped and I am not at all tired. I believe my troubles have been completely overcome, for I have a splendid appetite and everything I eat agrees with me perfectly. When I think of what Tanlac has done for me, I would consider it cheap at one hundred dollars a bottle. I must Tanlac everywhere I go and have made a good many people to take it. I gladly give this statement for I think it will benefit others who suffer as I did."

Tanlac is sold in San Francisco and Oakland by The Owl Drug Company stores.—Advertisement.

Berkeley Detective's Machine Smashed Up

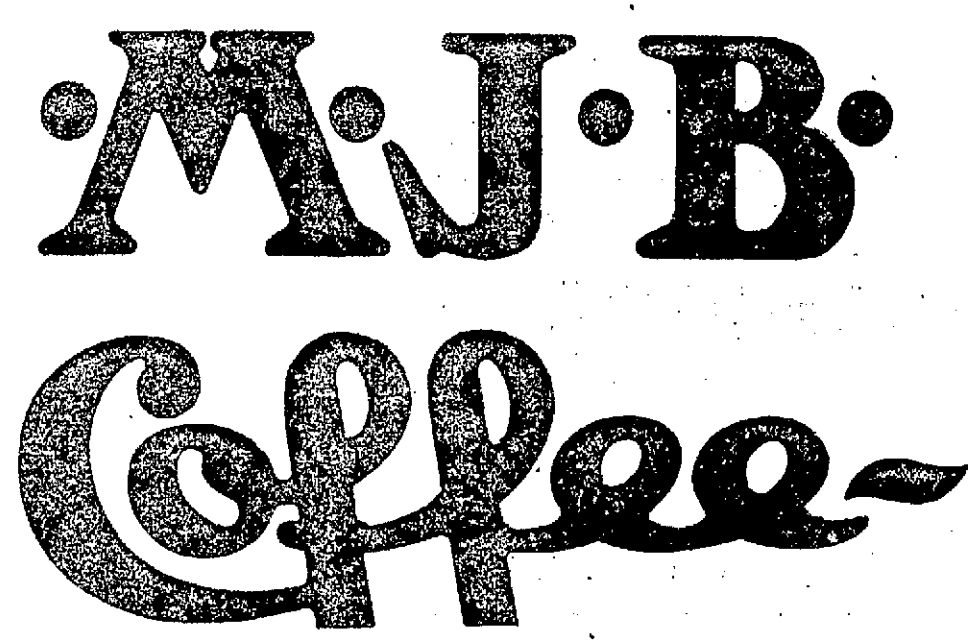

BERKELEY, July 3.—Detective B. H. Fraser of the Berkeley police department is forced to walk today as the result of damage done to his machine last evening by Edgar Wilson of 1112 Ward street. Fraser's machine was standing at University and San Pablo avenues when Wilson's machine backed into it. Nominal damage was done.

A second collision occurred yesterday between automobiles driven by Mrs. L. M. Byington, 456 Jean street, Oakland, and Lim Oni, 1221 East 12th street, at Benvenue and Stuart streets. Mrs. Byington's car was slightly damaged. No one was hurt.

DO YOU KNOW THAT

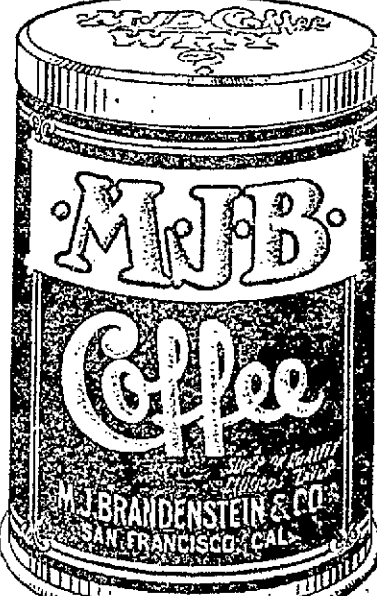

The Quality of Coffee varies materially with the altitude at which it is grown. The lowlands produce the soft, fluffy coffee bean, while up in the clear fresh air of the highlands flourish the firm, rich variety.

To secure that savory aroma for which is famous, only the choice beans grown in the mountain plantations are used.

This careful selection assures you that rich concentrated flavor of M. J. B. COFFEE.

MILLER HEIRS WILL PAY TAX

SAN FRANCISCO NEWS

UNION TRUST SUES WINE MEN

SAN FRANCISCO, July 3.—Admission that Henry Miller of Miller & Lux, gave away millions of dollars in property in expectation of his death is made in a document filed by heirs in the Superior court. This makes the estate of Miller subject to the state inheritance tax.

The heirs, evidently having given up any idea that payment of the inheritance tax could be avoided, seek to have the appraisal of the estate reduced from $32,000,000 to $17,753,000. State inheritance tax appraiser Richard F. Mogan demands that the estate pay $1,859,961.53. Already the heirs, headed by J. Leroy Nickel, have paid to the federal government $2,500,000 inheritance tax, under protest, and are now suing for its repayment.

FINES $1000 IN BILLS

OF NEW PRESSED SUIT.

It's a shock when you find in your trousers, that you sent to the valet for pressing with not a nickel in them, bills amounting to $1000. That sensation was enjoyed by Chas. Schlesinger, president of the Schlesinger Realty company who lives at the Palace hotel, San Francisco. Schlesinger immediately hunted up the valet and found him in argument with the real owner of the money. This man's name was Edwin Schlesinger of New York, and he also had sent his trousers to the valet, and had forgotten to remove the bills. In the general enjoyment of the situation, the valet was tipped for his mistake.

TILT COMPANY SUES

WINE ASSOCIATION.

The California Wine association is made defendant in a suit filed by the Union Trust company of San Francisco to settle a dispute over Liberty bonds and bonds of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company valued at $99,500. As the wine association is liquidating its assets preparatory to settling with its stockholders, it has requested the trust company to turn over the bonds. The trust company contends that it is its duty to keep the bonds until maturity in 1925 or until the redemption of all outstanding bonds. The court's opinion is asked.

WIFE GETS $10,500 IN

MAINTENANCE ACTION.

Mrs. Martha Ruddy Leet has won a preliminary skirmish in the row with her husband William Leet, manager of an automobile concern, who was treated recently at the San Francisco Central Emergency hospital for slight wounds inflicted, he said, in a suicidal attempt. Judge Crothers yesterday awarded her $10,500 judgment in her suit for separate maintenance. Leet has filed suit in Omaha, Neb., for divorce, alleging cruelty. Mrs. Leet, in her suit for maintenance, charged that her husband squandered his money on wine and women, struck his wife and kicked in the door of her room at the Stanford Court apartments.

U. S. SEA FIGHTER SAYS

WIFE HAS AFFINITY

The war was over and George Rasmussen, on a United States mine-sweeper, wanted to go home to San Francisco. So he wrote his wife, asking her to send an affidavit declaring that he was needed at the old bedside. This is the answer he alleges he received.

"Just keep on fighting for millionaires and Bolsheviks."

Rasmussen, in a suit for divorce, charges that on his return home he found that his wife had many affairs, including several navy men and two insurance brokers. Harry Rhodes, 350 Pine street, and Robert Michaels, 1551 Franklin street.

He alleges that he found Michaels in his wife's apartment.

No Trouble to Keep

Skin Free From Hairs

(The Modern Beauty)
There is no need for any woman to countenance superfluous hairs, because with a paste made by mixing some powdered delatone with water it is easy to get rid of them. The paste is applied for 2 minutes, then rubbed off and the skin washed. This treatment will rid the skin of hair without leaving a blemish, but care should be taken to see that you get real delatone.—Advertisement.

DR. WALTON PRESTON, DEAN OF S. F. PHYSICIANS, DIES

A dean of the medical profession in San Francisco has passed with the death of Dr. Walton Preston, 728 Forty-eighth avenue. He had practiced continually here since 1870. Dr. Preston was a prominent Mason. He leaves a widow, Mrs. Walton Preston; a daughter, Mignon, and a son, Dr. R. W. Preston, practicing medicine in Mendocino City. The funeral will be held this afternoon from the Masonic Temple.

CHARLES K. LIPMAN OF GUGGENHEIM CO. DIES

Word of the death of Charles K. Lipman, vice-president of the Guggenheim Exploration Co., has been received from New York by San Francisco relatives. His elder brother, Frederick L. Lipman, vice-president of the Wells-Fargo-Nevada National bank, in San Francisco, went to his brother's bedside a week ago. Lipman was a native of California, 52 years old. He leaves a widow, formerly Miss Edith Law of San Francisco; a sister, Mrs. Louise A. Whitworth of Berkeley, and another brother, Harry R. Lipman of Rosenberg Bros. & Co.

WIFE SAYS SHE PAWNED DIAMOND TO PAY RENT

Forced to pawn her diamond brooch to pay rent, she alleges, although her husband was making from $200 to $500 a month, Mrs. Edith Lee Viers, a saleswoman, she charges that on a trip to Lake Tahoe, he threatened to drive their automobile over a precipice.

After a strenuous day outdoors, when winds, heat and exhausts have combined to take away one's freshness and leave the skin so wrinkled and saggy—or after a hot and fretful day indoors—one often has a desire to freshen up. There is a simple and effective remedy for this. It is to use a good skin cream. This will not only freshen the skin, but will also prevent wrinkles from forming. 'HEATH CLUB' LINES UP ON FIREMAN CASE

Announcement by Commissioner F. F. Morse that he would not sue Chief Elliott Whitehead resulted today in a lining up of forces among former members of the old Heath club, fireman's organization, opposed to the present fire chief, and who had expected Whitehead's removal with the election of William J. Bacous.

"We thought we had won a victory at all," said William Smith, former deputy in the district attorney's office and a leader of the club in former days when it was an active political factor. Whitehead incurred displeasure of the members of the club by enforcing the civil service rule that firemen in that refrain from doing political work. Smith, who had been a member of the club, and who had supported Bacous, throwing Smith's support from the primary election, when Smith failed to qualify for a final race for the commission, to the present, and commissioner of streets, with the understanding that a change be made in the fire chief's office.

Morse said that so long as he remained commissioner, he would not change fire chiefs. The council yesterday reassigned commissioners to the old departments, leaving Morse in charge of fire and police affairs.

HUMOR FEATURES IN NEWS MOVIES

Gleanings from THE TRIBUNE Daily Almanac add a touch of humor to the record of local events pictured in the TRIBUNE-Kinema Weekly and shown daily at the Kinema Theatre.

The return of the delegates of the Oakland Ad Club, who brought back a large number of trophies from the convention in Portland, Ore., and the happenings which Oaklanders are particularly interested. The Ad Club is one of the wide awake organizations in the city, and their success in Portland means much for Oakland.

The departure of the kiddies of the West Oakland Home for their summer outing in the country is another event that is of wide interest, the home being one of the foremost charities of the Eastbay region.

Other items in THE TRIBUNE-Kinema Weekly now being shown are the game between the Oaks and the Beavers, Kahn Brothers signing their lease, and the flight of Lieutenant Krull of Mather Field from the Yosemite Valley to Oakland.

The program is a feature of the Kinema Weekly at every performance and is changed every Sunday.

WOULD RAISE BAN ON DICE SHAKING

An amendment was proposed in the city council today to the gambling ordinance of the last administration letting down the bars for 25 games in cigar stores, dice shaking for cigars or drinks, and prize concessions in amusement parks. The amendment, drawn up by Charles Beardsley, attorney for the Cigar Dealers Association and for Lora Park, specifies that all betting in public places, or games in public places, for anything of value as a stake is illegal, but specifically defines "stake" as any fund or thing of value or things of value contributed by two or more persons so that each person so contributing is to have a chance to gain a portion or all of that contributed.

This, according to Beardsley, removes from the category of "stakes" any prize not contributed to by all persons concerned in a game, as the person contributing the prize has no chance to gain any portion of that thing.

Prize Fight Passes Handed to Council

Today was "distribution day" before the city council, when prize fight passes were handed to the various members of the city council. All the members of the council got "duets" for the fights except Commissioners Morse and Soderberg. These two members say they will not accept free passes to fights.

Bascule Bridge Work Is Delayed Road Return Plans Hold Up Project

According to information given to the Board of Supervisors today by Supervisor W. J. Hamilton, who returned yesterday from the East, the beginning of work on the $2,000,000 bascule bridge across the estuary will have to await the disposition of the railroad question now under consideration in Washington. The Federal government, Hamilton says, is willing to aid in every way and is anxious to see work move ahead, but thinks that in view of the President's announcement that the roads will be turned over to their owners, undertakings of such magnitude cannot be authorized without the consent of the owners.

The whole question has been passed up to the Southern Pacific company by the Railroad Administration, according to a letter from T. C. Powell, director of capital expenditures, to Congressman A. J. Elston of Berkeley, who advised Elston that it would be useless for him to appear before the Federal authorities in regard to securing authorization for the work to begin.

Hamilton reports that Congressman Elston as well as Attorney Harrison S. Robinson, who has been in Washington lately, worked hard to secure some progressive disposition of the matter. The Board of Supervisors today were shown a letter from T. C. Powell to Elston containing the following paragraph:

"The United States Railway Administration will not oppose the construction of the bridge at this time, but in view of the announcement by the President relative to an early return of the roads to the corporate control, the Railroad Administration could not undertake the project except with the consent of the company and an agreement on their part providing for the expenditure to be chargeable to capital account."

The bonds for the bridge were authorized by the taxpayers at bond election in 1917, and the plans were in course of preparation when war exigencies made it necessary to discontinue them until after the war. In the meantime the cost of material has advanced to such proportions that a bridge will cost $4,500,000 to $5,000,000, an increase over the original estimate.

RALPH T. FISHER AND BRIDE HOME

Friends of Ralph T. Fisher, for the past four years a member of the civil service board and president of the Young Men's Christian Association, were given a distinct surprise today when Fisher appeared in Oakland after a month in the east with his bride, the former Miss Margaret Merriam of New York, and the wedding of the approaching nuptials had leaked out. Many social functions and receptions are being arranged in their honor.

Mr. Fisher, although a California girl, was raised and educated in the East. She was graduated from the Holyoke College for girls and for a couple of years has been in the employ of the Standard Oil Company of New York. She is a daughter of the Rev. Frank Merriam, former pastor of the Congregational Church at Ventura, where the bride was born.

The young couple have taken up their residence here.

CHAMPAGNE USED AT LAUNCHINGS

Champagne still is the favorite for launchings on San Francisco bay, in spite of the war-time prohibition law.

At two launchings yesterday, sparkling wine was splashed on the hulls of the ships that began their "great adventure."

Miss Nora Hansen smashed the precious stuff over the head of a friend who was sitting down the ways at the Moore shipyards in Oakland.

Mrs. John H. Rosseter, wife of the director of operations of the United States Shipping Board, sponsored the steel freighter West Kader, $800,000, which was launched from the Schaw-Bathier shipyards at South San Francisco.

License Inspector Office Re-Created

Herbert Elder, former manager of a local furniture company, is to be Oakland's license inspector, an office discontinued five years ago when William Franke was ousted from the position, and re-created by the city council today. Commissioner F. F. Morse filed an ordinance creating the office, which will go into effect in eight days, and announced that he will appoint Elder. This will remove the collection of store and saloon licenses from the duties of the chief of police.

CITY HALL PLAZA

Opposition to the plan for a public comfort station in the place of the Liberty Hut on the city hall plaza, proposed to be erected by J. A. Volt as a private concession, was received today by the city council in a protest from the Park Board.

Commissioner W. H. Edwards and Mayor John L. Davis remarked that the arrangement was undesirable and that they would oppose it.

The council today received bids for the filling in of the foot of Fifth avenue, to widen the streets to the Hanlon yards. The bids were referred to the city engineer.

SAVING ARMY PICNIC

Oakland Salvationists and their friends, with members of the organization from San Francisco, Vallejo, Napa and other points, will, as in former years, celebrate the Fourth at Trestle Glen with a basket picnic.

All-Night Dance Halls Get License

Three all-night dances were granted permission to operate by recommendation of the police department and action of the city council today. These are dances operated by O. H. Hippen, 471 Ninth street, R. Lee, 932 Broadway, and a cafe in the Hotel Oaks.

OLYMPIA WOMAN HONORED

MILWAUKEE, July 3.—Josephine Corliss Preston, State superintendent of public instruction, Olympia, Washington, was nominated without opposition for president of the National Education Association at the nominating committee meeting today. Her election tomorrow seems assured.

FIRE ON SPIRIT RANCH

SANTA CRUZ, CAL., July 3.—Seven-five acres of grain land on part of a ranch owned by Claus Spreckels at Aptos, south of here, was swept by fire, according to reports reaching here last night.

BARTENDERS GET JOBS AS HOD-CARRIERS

Bartenders, out of work through the "dry" law, are beginning to find other employment. Six former bartenders were employed today by Commissioner William J. Bacous as hod-carriers in his brick contracting company. They will receive $7.25 a day.

DEMAND MADE COUNCIL PAY UNION SCALES

Threats of drastic action to collect the new union wage scale from the city for various crafts and a claim for retroactive pay from yesterday for all city employees concerned, whenever the city comes to the union wage scale, were filed with the city council today by the Building Trades Council. The building organization served notice that their scales for the crafts involved are as follows: Laborers, $5 a day; hoistmen, $8 a day; day laborers, $4.50 to $6.00 a day; steamfitters, $5, and electric workers and carpenters, $3.

The Trades Council in its letter, which was signed by Fred Pratt, secretary, set forth that it had made various representations to the council and that these were referred to the civil service board, that the civil service board had passed back the matter to the council and that no action had been taken.

"The scale is now payable and retroactive to July 1," said the notification. "The Building Trades Council will support collection."

"It seems that they make up their minds and we have nothing to do with it," said Commissioner Fred Soderberg.

"We keep raising them and they keep raising their scales and we can't keep up with them," said City Clerk L. W. Cummings.

Commissioner W. H. Edwards moved that the scale be submitted to the civil service board, with the recommendation that any union scale be adhered to when established. A report will be made on it next Wednesday.

CONFESSES PLOT TO ROB S. F. BANK

SAN FRANCISCO, July 3.—The complete details of an intended daylight robbery of the Bank of Italy at Market and Mason streets, primarily directed at the most important paying teller's window which carries a daily balance in excess of $250,000 in currency, were made in a confession by Lee Carter, alleged Gaines, Ore., bank robber, to Captain of Detectives Duncan Maheson today.

Carter made his confession prior to his departure for Oregon with Sheriff John Anderson, following his arrest here when he made a complaint against Hazel Perry, whom he claimed robbed him of $1700 last Saturday. Carter is alleged to have obtained $14,000 in the Gaines bank robbery, May 28. He escaped in an automobile.

According to Carter's confession the robbery had been planned for an afternoon between 1 and 2 o'clock, which, according to a close check by Carter, was the time when the least number of people were on the bank floor.

RUMETSCH TO SUE FOR HIS HALF PAY

That he is being "legislated" out of $72 a year, and that he will sue for it, is the statement today of Police Corporal Herman Rumetsch, under temporary retirement on half pay as the result of a wound received while arresting a lunatic. Rumetsch, who retired temporarily on April 1, claims that he is entitled to half pay based on the grade of his duty, should be allowed full pay until his recovery. He underwent seventeen operations before his life was assured, the lunatic's bullet having torn away part of his left leg.

BASEBALL GAME IN POISON IVY BAD FOR GIRLS

Woe reigns in the city hall of fives today—all because of a baseball game.

Four stenographers in the hall offices who have a little social club, played the game—in the hills Sunday at a club picnic. But they reckoned not with poison oak.

Mrs. William Cox of the Department of Public Health and Safety, came to work today with a fine example of poison oak decorations, and others in the office fled for fear it was catching. Upstairs came reports of "days off" for several persons who indulged in that hillside game of ball.

Kaufman's Friends Deny He Will Resign

Rumors that George Kaufman, member of the City Service Board, would resign because of the appointment by Mayor Davis of John Chambers to the municipal body, today were scouted by friends of the official, who said that Kaufman, while some years ago he had said he might resign, has not said so lately. Kaufman is out of the city.

WOMAN FINED $250

On conviction of the charge of having narcotics in her possession, in violation of the state poison act, Lillian Allen paid a fine of $250 in Judge Mortimer Smith's police court today.

Driver Tries to Miss Woman; Hits Another

Attempting to avoid striking her companion, Robert E. Sim of 1234 Sixty-fourth avenue, driving a delivery truck, ran over and severely injured Mrs. Edith Jones of 1619 Eighty-eighth avenue, last night, at Fourteenth street and Forty-second avenue.

According to Sim's report to the police, Mrs. Jones, in company with another woman, was crossing the corner. He tried to avoid hitting her companion, struck Mrs. Jones. The injured woman was placed in the truck and rushed to the emergency hospital.

All-Night Dance Halls Get License

Death of Rich Chinese Is Probed Police Suspect Celestial's Foes

Suspecting that foul play might have been responsible for the strange death of the rich Chinese merchant, Lee Wing, aged 72, who was found dead in his kitchen, 319 Sixth street, early today, an investigation is being conducted by the police.

The body was found this morning by Ah Hook and Shuu Lee, who live at the same address.

Wing retired in the best of spirits and health last night, they say.

A long-standing feud has existed between Ming and other merchants, the cause of which is unknown, it was revealed. Police are sifting the case.

The body bore no external marks of violence, though the mouth was frothing when the body was discovered. An autopsy will probably be held.

BURGLAR, EMPTY-HANDED ROUTED

Employees at the residence of A. C. Baumgartner, 293 Lenox avenue, made an unsuccessful attempt to capture a pair of burglars who attempted to rob the place early today, according to a police report.

Expensive jewels and a large amount of cash was saved by the alertness of the servants. They heard the burglars tampering with a rear window. The burglars discovered, fled, while two men employees looked through the window after them. After a chase of several blocks, the burglars eluded their pursuers.

CITY VOTERS GIVE ROAD BONDS BOOST

Latest tabulation of the vote cast in Alameda county at the $10,000,000 good roads bond election Tuesday shows that the three cities of Oakland, Berkeley and Alameda cast a heavier vote in favor of good roads than the suburban districts. The sentiment for the bonds was overwhelming everywhere, however, the ratio being nearly six to one.

The vote cast in the county was 23,444, with one precinct, Sunol, yet to report. The cost of the election was $15,000, or about 60 cents for each vote.

Only two precincts voted against the bonds, Amador by 9 to 14, and Warm Springs by 10 to 30.

The vote in Oakland was 11,315 for the bonds and 3324 against.

In Berkeley, the tally was 4238 for and 634 against.

The Alameda total was 2082 in favor and 288 against.

BOY, THREE, HIT BY AUTO; MAY DIE

The mistake in faltering directly in front of a fast moving automobile may cost the life of 3-year-old Henry Delaney of 5107 Lawton avenue, who was seriously injured late yesterday at San Pablo Avenue and Fortieth street. A machine driven by Mrs. May Kane of 673 Thirtieth street, struck him. According to witnesses the accident was unavoidable.

Union to Discuss Mooney Strike Plan

Electrical Workers' Union Local 283, will hold a special meeting tonight at 8 o'clock at the Pacific building, Sixteenth and Jackson streets, to decide what steps will be taken with regard to the proposed Mooney strike.

WOMAN WILL NOT ANSWER POLICE QUERY

A well-dressed woman, of more than average intelligence, was arrested early today at the corner of Grand avenue and Perkins street, and is held in the city prison, pending an investigation into a series of burglaries that have been made in the neighborhood recently. The woman refused to give her name. Neither would she give the arresting officers her address or vouchsafe any information to their questions.

Further investigation of police inspectors at headquarters developed that the woman's name is Leta Gower. The woman was extensively gowned, which deepens the mystery why she should be wandering about in the early morning hours, say the police.

FUNERAL SATURDAY

The funeral of Richard Sachse, Jr., the 7-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sachse, 8134 Ocean View Drive, who was drowned yesterday morning while swimming near Sisson, where the family was summering, will take place on Saturday at 2 p. m. The services will be private.

WILLIAM FARNUM, who is at the American this week in "The Lone Star Ranger," and BERT LYTEL, who will be seen next Sunday in "One Thing at a Time," O'Day.

WILLIAM FARNUM

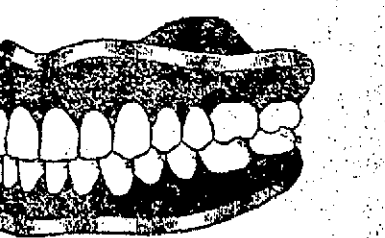

BERT LYTEL

The tremendous popularity of Zene Grey's famous story of Texas in the early '90s, "The Lone Star Ranger," and of William Farnum, the noted Fox star who plays the title role in the production, is attested at the American theater this week by the tremendous throngs which have filled the popular playhouse to capacity at every matinee and evening performance since the enthusiastic commencing last Sunday. Many of those who have determined to witness the production before the close of the engagement Saturday night, are making arrangements to attend the matinee or early evening performances, as the most desirable seats are obtainable at those times.

Sharing honors with Farnum on the bill, Peggy Hyland supplies no end of fun and amusement in George Barr McCutcheon's "Covance Court."

Commencing next Sunday, Bert Lytel will appear in his latest production, "One Thing at a Time," O'Day, a picture with rather an odd title, but said to be one of his best. It is a comedy-drama of the canvas which the second feature of this bill is a society drama, "Thin Ice," in which Corinne Griffith is starred.

The last half of next week two splendid productions will be presented. The first is "The Turn of the Mind," with H. B. Warner, the eminent English actor, and "Better Times," King Vidor's reason for the picture. King Vidor was the director of "The Turn in the Road," recently shown at the American—Adv.

THE SECOND ANNUAL RODEO AT LIVERMORE

Livermore Is Ready for Its Second Big Rodeo

Program for the Three-Day Fiesta That Will Include an Old-Fashioned Fourth of July, With Special Features

Livermore is ready for its second rodeo. The riders are ready, the stock is ready, the arena is ready, and the Valley as a whole is ready to welcome visitors who want to see an old-fashioned Fourth of July and a three-day carnival of genuine rodeo events.

The town is full of riders and corral and stables are full to overflowing with stock that will be used in the three-day festival. There are 250 riders from the surrounding country and from the state at large, and twice as many horses and bulls. Of the riders thirty are girls, mostly from the Livermore mountains that boast some of the finest feminine riders that can be found for such events. The Livermore rodeo has attracted to it the best horsemen, male and female, because of the notoriously fair treatment accorded all riders, and this makes the public assured of genuine sport.

It must be remembered that the celebration lasts three days, with a full rodeo program each day. Those who are afraid of a crowd may see a complete fifteen event program on either Saturday or Sunday.

Those who wish to stay for more than one day will find evening entertainment and ample accommodations.

The celebration will begin tomorrow morning with a salute fired by the local association of war veterans under the command of Captain L. R. C. Bunker, at 5 A. M.

The military parade will begin at 10 o'clock with John McGlinchey as marshal. This will be participated in by the local war veterans, the Red Cross chapter, Boy Scouts, visiting automobiles and clubs and lodges.

The patriotic exercises will take place at the flag pole in the center of town at 11 o'clock. Supervisor D. J. Murphy will be chairman of the day and will introduce Ex-Superior Judge W. H. Donahue as chairman of the meeting. Mayor T. E. Knox will present honor certificates to the war veterans; District Attorney Ezra Decoto will deliver the address of the day; E. J. Cuthbertson will read Lincoln's Gettysburg address, and there will be several musical numbers by the Livermore Choral Society.

At noon time there will be dinner served at Dania Hall for the war veterans.

The cowboy parade will begin at 12:45 with James L. Moy and H. T. Holley as marshals.

The rodeo events will begin promptly at 2 o'clock at the arena and will last until after 5 o'clock.

Captain P. A. Van Tassel and Lieutenant W. R. Williams will present a thrilling balloon ascension and parachute jump at 3 o'clock, the rodeo exercises being suspended for a few moments to allow of this feature. The balloon is a new invention of Captain Van Tassel, who is one of the best-known aeronauts on the coast, and is being tested out preparatory to being presented to the United States government. The balloon is of new shape, 90 feet high and 43 feet in diameter. It will be sent up one mile in the air and Lieutenant Williams will make the parachute drop from that height.

In the evening there will be a military ball on the open air platform.

The program for Saturday includes the cowboy parade at 12:45 and the rodeo at 2 o'clock.

On Saturday evening there will be an excellent card of boxing bouts and the outdoor military ball.

On Sunday the finals in the rodeo events will take place, and as many of the prizes depend upon these finals they will be the most spirited events of the rodeo.

The entire Livermore Valley was one big committee upon the Rodeo, but special committees attended to detail work. The picture at the upper left shows the Livermore Stockmen's Rodeo Association photographed on the steps of the Livermore Library after one of the Rodeo meetings by a TRIBUNE Staff Photographer. To the right are Constable HENRY SEEBAND and ROY BECK, referred to by their friends as "Mutt and Jeff." The pictures below are of Rodeo participants. At the left are shown J. SEEGAR of Corral Hollow; one of Livermore's returned soldiers, and JOHN MCGLINCHY, president of the Livermore Stockmen's Association. To the left, SANTOS BERNAL, mounted; HARVEY KETTINGER in chaps, and H. T. HOLLEY. Below, some fair Rodeo riders from the Livermore ranges.

COMMITTEES WHO WORKED FOR SUCCESS

Men Who Did the Hard Work That Was Necessitated in the Arrangements for the Great Livermore Celebration

Every Detail Has Been Watched by People Who Gave Their Labor Freely for the Good of the Community

The entire Livermore Valley constituted itself one big committee for the production of the Rodeo, but the responsibility fell upon the following committees:

Director—James L. Moy.
Secretary—M. G. Callaghan.
Official starter—H. T. Holley.
Judges—W. J. Martin, Geo. Devaney and Arthur Hebborn of Salinas.
Finance committee—T. W. Norris, D. J. Murphy, M. J. Clark, Wm. Rees, Carl Clarke, M. R. Henry and T. E. Brady.
Soldiers' reception committee—J. O. McKown, Wm. Rees, Carl Clarke, M. R. Henry and H. E. Crane.
Horse committee—R. L. Conannon, Leo Hansen, John McGlinchey and Monte Montgomery.
Bull committee—J. J. Moy, Charles Graham, Joseph Connolly and Chas. Scott.
Feed committee—C. G. Owens, Jas. Gallagher Jr. and John Flynn.
Auditing committee—H. S. Goodell, M. J. Clark and Chas. G. Owens.
Dance committee—J. R. Aurrecochea, Eugene McGlinchey, Jos. Conannon and Chester Beck.
Concessions committee—L. H. Morgan, P. C. Lassen and Fred S. Young.
Publicity committee—M. R. Henry, Paul Goldsmith, W. T. Davis, A. E. Maaske, Mark Lee and P. Sinclair.
Parade committee—James Gallagher, J. S. Conannon, E. C. Mendendorfer, H. W. Hupers, Geo. W. McKenzie.
Patriotic exercises committee—George Beck, M. G. Callaghan, G. S. Fitzgerald, W. H. Donahue and A. L. Henry.
Announcer—George Conrad.

INFORMATION HEADQUARTERS

As a large number of strangers are expected to visit Livermore during the rodeo, and as it is expected that there will be many inquiries for information as to the valley, the Livermore Herald will establish an information bureau and will furnish information to those who may need it. The Herald has always been foremost in advertising the resources of the Livermore Valley and members of the Herald staff will be found in the office of that paper for the purpose of giving data that may be needed.

The Rodeo Association has its headquarters in the office of M. G. Callaghan next to the postoffice and this office will also be open during the rodeo period for the purpose of directing visitors.

OWENS DOES HARD WORK.
Charles G. Owens has done much hard work for the rodeo, and to him much credit for the success of the event is due. Mr. Owens lives in Livermore but is one of the leading stockmen of the Corral Hollow district, and as such has been of great service in enlisting the interest of the range riders of his section.

Seats for All Are Provided

There will be seats for everybody. The grandstand will hold 1,200 people comfortably, and this structure is flanked on each side by bleachers that will hold 1,500 people each, making capacity for 4,200 in the permanent stands. In addition seats have been secured from the State Fair at Sacramento for 3,000 more, and these have been erected for use in case of necessity. Special care will be taken of automobile parties and arrangements have been made for parking 100 machines in the grounds so that the events can be witnessed from the machines.

SELLS AUTO EVERY DAY

Before C. F. and George W. Smith found Livermore several months ago and purchased the Bertram Motor Car Company, the automobile business was pretty quiet. But the Smiths started right in to wake things up and succeeded so wonderfully that both boys are now known as the "car-a-day" Smiths, having set the unusual record of selling at least one car a day for the past four weeks.

The Smith brothers were well known in Oakland before moving to Livermore. They now have the finest salesrooms and service station outside of Oakland, and are the official Willard Storage Battery department, which is in charge of M. J. Silva. Mr. Johnson heads the shop service forces with experienced and efficient automobile mechanics.

Two more wide-awake salesmen than the Smith brothers cannot be found anywhere, and they are the only exclusive motor car dealers in Livermore. They handle the Chevrolet and the Scripps-Booth, both leading cars.

Mr. Smith yesterday said to a newspaper representative: "The Chevrolet 490, being the leader of all electrically equipped cars in California, is the ideal car for the farmer, being cheapest and easiest to run. It possesses every good feature of the highest priced cars, including self-starter, electric lights, three speeds ahead, demountable rims, motor driven water and oil pump and one-man top, with curtains concealed. It has a very pleasing appearance which, combined with its wonderful gas mileage, easy riding qualities and maximum power, will always keep it in the lead."

Mr. Smith then went on to talk of the Scripps-Booth. "The Scripps-Booth being the latest creation of the General Motors Company, is a beautiful car in addition to having all of the latest equipment. The easy-riding qualities of this beautiful six have captured the hearts of the Livermore people."

The Smith brothers have spared neither time nor money in working for the success of the Rodeo. They contribute freely for every cause which is for the development of their adopted town. Their salesrooms are fully decorated, and the outside of the building, with its solid plate glass front and sides, is festooned with red, white and blue bunting, for the great celebration which begins tomorrow and continues through Sunday.

Especially for the Rodeo the Smiths will have ten new cars on exhibition and expect to dispose of all of them. In stock will be found the latest accessories and a complete line of parts, oils, greases, tires, etc. Both George W. and C. F. are popular in Livermore, their phenomenal success already proving this. They are a credit to the community and deserve the reward they are receiving.

H. T. HOLLEY IS ACTIVE.

H. T. Holley, superintendent of the Patterson ranch on the Arroyo Valle, has been one of the indefatigable workers for the success of the rodeo. Mr. Holley has been active in the arrangement of the program and in the collection of riders, stock and features for the event. He has made an active canvass of the mountains and has been responsible for many strings of good horses and bulls that have been brought to Livermore for the rodeo. Mr. Holley will be general director of the events of the track.

Oakland Chamber of Commerce LIVERMORE TRADE EXCURSION JULY 4TH

The Trade Extension Committee invites you to join in an excursion to Livermore, to meet Business Men of that city and to attend the Rodeo.

YOU WILL FIND THIS TRIP BOTH PROFITABLE AND ENJOYABLE

A lively delegation will leave the Chamber of Commerce offices at 8:30 A. M., July 4th, and proceed by automobile to Livermore in a body—are you going to be one of them?

Come with your auto, your friends, also your friend's cars. If you have no machine, come anyway. We will find a place for you. And bring along your pennants, badges and noise-making devices.

BENNETT'S FAST WORK.

The work of completing the structures and fences at the park fell upon Ray Bennett, and Mr. Bennett did a remarkably fast piece of construction in putting the grounds in their present condition. Two weeks ago there was not even a fence post up on the grounds, and today everything is complete except some small finishing touches.

WILL DEDICATE THE SOLDIERS' MEMORIAL PARK

PARK WILL BE SOLDIER MEMORIAL

Livermore Sent Many of Her Sons to the War and It Is Proposed Rodeo Field Be Dedicated to Their Memory

Will Include a Complete Athletic Field for the Use of the Youth of the Valley for Baseball and Track Meets

Patriotism is the keynote of the rodeo of 1919 as it was that of 1918. As the profits of the rodeo of last year went into the treasury of the Red Cross, so the profits of this year will be invested in a soldiers' memorial for Livermore, and that memorial will take the shape of something that Livermore has long needed—a public park. Furthermore the park is to be fully equipped.

General plans for the rodeo were made a year ago when the details of the event came to be discussed it was suggested that whatever profit resulted should be applied upon a public park and that the park be dedicated to the public use as a memorial for the soldiers who went from Livermore into the service of the United States. Livermore was patriotic to the last degree when $10 young men went into the service of their country out of a total population of less than 2500.

Many of these young men were off the ranges that will figure so prominently in the rodeo during the rest of the week, and it was fitting that the park that had been decided upon should be an athletic and rodeo field.

ATHLETIC FIELD.
The plans of the committee that arranged the purchase of the memorial and the details of the rodeo include the completion of an athletic field for use by the youth of Livermore as well as by the stockmen and rodeo riders. There will be a standard, half-mile track that can be used for human athletic events as well as stock stunts and rodeos. The schools of Livermore have a large number of young athletes, and with a good track upon which they can practice it is expected that many community track meets will be arranged.

In the center of the track will be a baseball diamond and a football gridiron. Livermore has always had a good baseball team that has been hampered by lack of a proper place to practice and strong basketball teams are expected to develop into football clubs with the completion of the new field.

STOCK CENTER.
The park is also to be a center for all stock shows and sales. Corral and the neighborhood will be developed by the new park. This will result in developing and concentrating at one point the stock business of this section.

These features are possible of great development because of the location of the park. It is practically within the town limits of Livermore which makes it extremely convenient for the stockmen and the public, and with the improvements finished completely it will accomplish every object that is desired.

A grand stand still has a little work to be done upon it, and there is still some painting and finishing, but the track, fences, bleachers and seats, corals and some sheds are all in. The committee that made these arrangements did a good stroke of business in securing the old seats from the Tanforan Race Track. These seats were secured at a price so low that the freight charges almost amounted to what was paid for the seats themselves. A good coat of paint will give them many years of life, and they are thoroughly comfortable for the old race track patrons liked easy seats.

AUTO CAMP SITE.
The committee also has a plan for the future development of the park in a camping site for automobile parties. There is a general movement throughout the state to provide camping sites for automobile parties who come to town and want to sleep near their machines on their own bedding. All that is needed is to have water handy and this has been provided for the rodeo. A lot of trees and shrubbery will be planted and the park will then be opened to the public.

As soon as the park and its equipment is paid for and everything is free from debt the park will be formally turned over to the community and will be put under the control of a park commission.

In the meantime the Livermore Stockmen's Rodeo Association wants a name suggested for the park. Everybody is requested to send suggested names to the Rodeo Association, and visitors who come to the rodeo are invited to write their suggestions just as if they were residents of the Livermore Valley.

This is a most practical memorial and the committees have been congratulated upon their work in this direction.

$10,000 in Prizes;
$10,000 Investment
The Livermore Rodeo represents an investment of $10,000 in the park and improvements and $10,000 in prizes, but this is not considered exorbitant when the object is considered and the benefits to be derived are taken into consideration.

It is expected that the Livermore Rodeo will become an annual event, and that it will take its place with the regular shows for which California has become famous. If this comes true it will be one of the best advertisements ever given the Livermore valley.

The fact that the money is being well spent and for a public object also warrants the expenditure. Livermore will benefit by the possession of a public park in many ways. The Rodeo Association has not been niggardly with its money, but what they have spent they have expended judiciously.

Growth of Livermore's Rodeo Fathered by the Stockmen Dream of a Man Comes True

The Livermore Rodeo was born in war-time patriotism and will be consecrated in the patriotism of peace in the celebration of the next three days.

A year ago, when the Red Cross work was calling for all the financial aid that it could get, the people of the Livermore Valley determined to aid the cause which was so near and dear to them. The people of the Livermore Valley believed in the Red Cross, and they conceived the idea of a rodeo that would be purely a home talent affair. Livermore has large and but little known resources in both cattle and riders, at least to the outside world. The fact that the Livermore stockmen could arrange and carry out a complete rodeo from among themselves, without appealing to the rest of the state for either men or horses was not generally known, and even Alameda county did not realize how important was the stock industry of that section. But the Livermore people knew and it had long been the cherished ambition of A. L. Henry, editor of the Livermore Herald, to have Livermore a rodeo center.

So a rodeo was determined upon for the benefit of the Red Cross. It was considered a good opportunity to launch the long cherished plan of a few men who had talked the matter over ever since such stock displays had become popular in California. A Red Cross rodeo was announced and the people of Livermore went to work with a will.

A BIG SUCCESS.
The success of the Livermore rodeo of 1918 is now a matter of history.

It was one of the largest events ever given in the state.

It brought more than 8000 people to Livermore.

It added almost $5000 to the funds for the Red Cross.

It advertised the Livermore valley as few things have done.

It was a complete success.

The Livermore Rodeo is now to become an annual event. The success of 1918 settled that, and the people of the Livermore valley have gone about the organization of the event in a thoroughly practical manner.

The first thing that was to be done was to make the rodeo a town affair—even more, an affair for the entire Livermore valley. Professionalism and profit making was to be barred.

A NEW ASSOCIATION.
This was accomplished by incorporating an organization upon the laws of the State of California known as the Livermore Stockmen's Rodeo Association. This is an organization formed upon the same non-profit making plan as a city social club. The same law that permitted the formation of the Athlete-Nile club as a non-profit making organization was involved in the organization of the Livermore Stockmen's Rodeo Association, and the association is in reality a club, with a $25 initiation and dues. Memberships are sold in the association at $25 each, and the fund thus raised has been used as a nucleus to finance this rodeo.

This was a clean-cut plan. It interested a large number of people; it made the event of general interest; it eliminated the element of personal profit that is so often the downfall of shows and fiestas; it made the Livermore rodeo a community affair. Upon this basis the people of the Livermore valley could go before the people of the rest of Alameda county and of the state at large and put the Livermore rodeo before them as a strictly community institution.

THE OLD ASSOCIATION.
There are now 200 members of the Livermore Stockmen's Rodeo association, and it is expected that this membership will be added to very materially during the celebration that begins tomorrow. The members who formed the association have been so busy with the work of preparing for the rodeo that they have not had time to canvass the neighborhood for members. They have been more interested in getting the arena ready for use than they have for canvassing for membership. It is expected, however, that this number will be doubled when the event is appreciated and its object is understood.

It can be fairly said that the Rodeo association is an outgrowth of the old Livermore Stockmen's Protective association, an organization that has almost a quarter of a century of history behind it. The Livermore Stockmen's Protective association is an organization of stock owners of which John McGlinchey has been the president from its inception. This organization grew out of efforts to protect the Livermore cattle ranges from fire. It has never attempted to control prices or to do anything except to protect the stockmen from loss during the dry months of the summer. The association maintains an elaborate patrol each year during the dry months, and they have built more than 100 miles of telephone line through the ranges south of Livermore, these telephone lines leading from advantageous lookout points to the town of Livermore.

It is expected that the Livermore Rodeo will become an annual event, and that it will take its place with the regular shows for which California has become famous. If this comes true it will be one of the best advertisements ever given the Livermore valley.

The fact that the money is being well spent and for a public object also warrants the expenditure. Livermore will benefit by the possession of a public park in many ways. The Rodeo Association has not been niggardly with its money, but what they have spent they have expended judiciously.

LIVERMORE VALLEY AND GOOD ROADS

A Perfect System of Highways That Stood the Valley in Good Stead When Railroad Service Was Cut by War

Automobiles Supplanted the Steam Trains for Both Passengers and Freight; Good Roads Made This Possible

The Livermore Valley is so near to the San Francisco bay district that it is sometimes overlooked by those who live in the great industrial and commercial center of the state. It is nearer to Oakland and San Francisco than any of the small valleys that radiate north, east and south from the San Francisco bay and it is so near to those cities that the owner of an automobile, or even a commuter, can work at the bay and have his home in the Livermore valley.

Some few of the wealthy class have made their homes on the beautiful hillsides near Pleasanton, such as Mrs. Phoebe Apperson Hearst, who had her home at the wonderful Hacienda del Pozo de Verona, but Livermore has never tried to develop its possibilities as a suburban residence section. That this may come some day many believe. Already the town of Livermore, which is in the eastern part of the valley, has been brought within an easy hour and a quarter of Oakland over the finest boulevards in the state, and with the shortening of distance and the improvement of transportation the time will come when even this will be cut, and then the Livermore Valley will come into its own.

ALL TRANSPORTATION.
And so the Livermore Valley has remained an agricultural district up to this day, but an agricultural district that is rich and prosperous and which has a future before it filled with great prospects.

Livermore was for years dependent upon one steam railroad and one had mountain road for its communication with the outside world. To the one steam railroad has been added a second, so that there are now two, but just as the benefits of this competition began to be felt by the valley in improved railroad service the government took over both lines and since that time Livermore has suffered for local service as no other section of the state has suffered.

This, however, is only temporary and a return to competition and good service is expected at an early date. But the Livermore Valley found itself in a fortunate position when government ownership curtailed steam railroad travel. In the years just prior to the war there had been a persistent campaign for good roads carried on in Livermore. Supervisor D. J. Murphy had been determined that he would bring good roads to Livermore, and to his untiring efforts was due the fact that Livermore did not suffer in the least by the cutting down of the steam railroad service by the government. That good roads campaign, headed by Supervisor Murphy, and supported by everybody in the valley, was almost the salvation of the section during the recent period of uncertain local railroad service.

THE MAIN LATERAL.
Supervisor Murphy was determined to have the main lateral of the State Highway System run through the Livermore Valley, and he won. It was a long and determined fight, but at last an agreement was reached that the main lateral from the bay district into the San Joaquin and Sacramento valleys should run from Oakland to Hayward, through the Hayward Pass into the Livermore Valley and then into the San Joaquin. That was one of the first pieces of roadway constructed by the State Highway Commission and the county jointly, and that was ready for any kind of travel when the war railroad troubles began. This fact was vital to the Livermore valley.

Just the moment that railroad travel was cut by the war there sprang up an automobile service that met all the shorting in the rail service. There is today an hourly automobile service between Livermore and Oakland, for passengers, and an automobile freight service is making regular trips several times daily carrying capacity loads.

GOOD ROADS.
The transportation question was solved by good roads and the fact that had been carried on by the local supervisor over many years brought complete justification.

The Livermore good roads put that valley in easy hauling distance of all points of consumption. The products of the valley can be hauled to the bay district or to railroad or warehouse points with the greatest ease, owing to this road system, and it will be this road system that will ultimately put Livermore a suburb of the bay district for residence purposes.

And much of the credit for this event is due to A. L. Henry, the editor of the Livermore Herald, who has been urging this for many years, and who now sees his dream come true.

The Livermore rodeo is to be made an annual event from now on. This is true.

LIVERMORE THOROUGHLY WILD WEST

Cowboys and Cowgirls Flocking Into Town from the Livermore Ranges and from Salinas Rodeo of Last Week

Big Prizes Promise Lively Contests, and the Local Riders Are Determined to Maintain Their Local Pride

LIVERMORE, July 3.—Livermore looks like a wild west town today. Cowboys and cowgirls from the ranges back of town and from the Salinas Rodeo are everywhere. The best features from the Salinas Rodeo of last week have already arrived, and there is a great deal of rivalry to see whether the local riders or those from the outside will carry off the many prizes that are offered.

The local riders declare that they are going to walk away with the money and the riders from other sections are equally sanguine. The spirit is friendly but determined, and this gives promise that the rodeo events will be well contested.

There will be at least 250 riders in all events, and every event has contestants in plenty. The rodeo management announces that the lists are full and more than satisfactory.

The two first days will be preliminaries for the finals on Sunday. The preliminaries will be hotly contested because the man or girl who loses is at once out of the money, while the finals on Sunday will bring about the supreme test of what the riders can do.

The light card on Saturday night is expected to hold a large number of visitors in town for the Sunday events.

'Cappy Ricks' Is Bill at Ye Liberty 'The Man from Mexico' to Return

"Cappy" and "Matt" heroes of many sea-going tales from the pen of Peter B. Kyne, California's favorite short-story writer, assumed the flesh at Ye Liberty Playhouse last night in the persons of Tom Wise and William Courtney, who played the principal roles in "Cappy Ricks," the successful Oliver Morosco production, which will be at the theater for four nights with matinees on Friday, July 4 and Saturday. "Cappy Ricks" on the stage has lost nothing of the charm it had as a short story. The two actors selected for the principal roles are excellent types. No better choice could have been made for the role of "Cappy" than Tom Wise, who made the ship owner, crabbed and brusque, yet kindly and human, while William Courtney gives life to the spirited, rising young Yankee seaman. The play is replete with crisp, snappy dialogue, and the story is full of twists and turns, with several scenes that bring a tear to the eye. In addition to the stars in the cast, there are Helen Lowell, Isabel Wilcox, Percival Moore, Norval Keene, Eugene Moore, Elmer Ballard, Philip Lord, Thomas Shearer, Edward H. Horner, Helen Marr and J. H. Ryan. The production continues for the rest of the week, with matinees on Monday and Saturday, and will be followed on Sunday by the special return engagement of Landers Stevens and George Cooper in "The Man from Mexico." On July 10, 11 and 12 with a Saturday matinee, Allan Dillings will present his famed 1919 Revue.

"WATCH YOUR NEIGHBOR" IS HIT AT FULTON

The stirring adventures of the seemingly simple-minded but really keen, British spy who outwits a bunch of Germans at the world's peace conference while they imagine they are making sport of him, are giving excitement and pleasure to thousands of theatergoers in the Oliver Morosco bill, "Watch Your Neighbor," at the Fulton Playhouse this week, while the cautious humor of the piece keeps the laughs in evidence almost from curtain to curtain. FARNUM IN ADVENTURE PLAY AT AMERICAN

William Farnum in "The Lone Star Ranger," a pictureization of Zane Grey's fascinating tale of romance and adventure along the Texas border in the early '70s, is the feature of a highly entertaining picture program which is now being presented at the American Theater. The second film feature is "Percy Hyland in 'Cowboy Court,'" George Barr McCutcheon's humorously satirical story of high society and the idle rich. Mr. Farnum is supported by a well-selected cast which includes such capable players as Louise Lovely, G. Ray-management has appropriated $100,000 for other improvements. Lieutenant Grey, during aviator, will give some thrilling stunts at Neptune on the Fourth. In the evening there will be a protechnic display, on a magnificent scale. The War-Western swimming championships will be decided at Neptune Friday, Saturday and Sunday with hundreds of the best swimmers on the coast competing.

ARE YOU LEGALLY MARRIED? IS FRANKLIN OFFERING
"Are You Legally Married" or are you morally married? These questions, pertinent or important as you please, which occupy the screen at the Franklin Wednesday to Saturday. Some of the startling possibilities inherent in our marriage traditions are pictured in a drama of power and intensity. "Are You Legally Married" is a play you'll not forget in a hurry. Low Cost, the arch-demon of the celluloid freddie and Rosemary They are the co-stars.

OLD-FASHIONED FOURTH AT 1000A PARK PLAZA
A regular old-fashioned Fourth of July celebration which will have the added significance of the conclusion of peace treaty will be offered at 1000A Park. Three hundred wounded soldiers will be brought over from the Letterman Hospital as the guests of the City of Oakland and will be entertained at the park.

In the program of fireworks some of the most spectacular set pieces yet devised by the pyrotechnic manufacturers will be used. "Fountain" will open his sensational engagement on the Fourth with a performance at 4 p. m. and another at 9 p. m. Foucher and the Jete "Dare Devil" Schreyer were the only men in the world to present the act which is to be offered at 1000A.

De Luxe Motor Service to San Jose

Commencing July 2d the DeLuxe Transportation Company will operate their luxurious motor coaches through to San Jose. Cars will leave from 1312 Webster street, opposite S. P. depot, 14th and Franklin. First car leaves at 6:30 a. m. and every hour thereafter until 6:20 p. m., then 8 and 9:30 p. m. Fare $11.00. —Advertisement.

FLYING FEATURE FOURTH AT NEPTUNE BEACH
The new policy of Neptune Beach in keeping the big park open in the evenings, has made a big hit with Neptune "fans" and several thousand pleasure-seekers enjoy the evening air and the many amusements at the Alameda park every night. Special evening attractions are being arranged by the management and some interesting announcements will be made soon. The "Whirl," one of the most popular riding devices in the country, will be installed in a couple of weeks and the Baker players when "It Happened in Oakland" Luce's new play, is to be presented today at the Great Theatre from the inside looking out. A picture of what really happens "back stage" in the Oakland Orpheum during a stock season, and besides that, there are scenes showing other places in Oakland.

On the same bill with Miss Tilmadge is Stella Talbot in "The Price of Innocence," an unusually high grade drama dealing the perils to which a young woman is subjected.

Speedy Willard-Dempsey champion-shoot right returns will be announced and screened in the theater Friday afternoon beginning at 1 o'clock sharp. Smoking will be permitted in all parts of the house.

Other features of the bill are "Ballyhooing the Avarika," a Chester-Quinta picture, "Carroll's 25-piece orchestra, Mason and Dixon in songs, and Herbert Burland, master organist.

ARBUCKLE MIXES 'EM FOR DRYS IN "A DESERT HERO"
Fatty Arbuckle mixes 'em for the "dry" in his new week of bubbling mirth labeled with the thrifty title "A Desert Hero." He looks easy, but he's a toughie when the bartender tries to interfere with his bass drum courtship of Fox-trot Fanny.

Bill Hart is the champion shot of the rofco, and leaves the range to guard "The Money Corn" in the city. He's just as ready with his run as ever and during the underworld hunt of the gang who are after him.

The Trilune-Kinema Weekly includes the return of the Art Club delicates, the Oaks in the Heavens, the annual outing of the West Oakland Home, Kahn Kohn, singing their "No, no, no," and Lieutenant Krull flying from the Yosemite to Oakland.

Pathé Revue, Gaumont Weekly and Screen Magazine are on the stage program.

Californian Wounded in Bolshevik Attack
WASHINGTON, July 3.—Addresses of American soldiers captured, killed and wounded in a surprise attack by Bolsheviks at Soukhan line, Siberia, June 22, are announced by the War Department. They include:

Captured—Private Chas. C. Bulard, General Delivery, Spokane, Wash. Wounded, degree undetermined—Private Clarence G. Crall, 238 South Ophir street, Stockton, Cal.

POLICE SAVE MAN FROM MOB THREAT

Following complaints from various parks in the city of a stranger who in the past few weeks has been accosting young children there, Antonio Machren is in the city prison under investigation, after being captured at De Fremery Park by S. W. Daugherty and taken into custody by the police after threatening neighbors were preparing to take the law into their own hands.

Daugherty had been keeping watch for several days on the park as the result of complaints. Last evening he says he saw Machren attempt to entice several small girls to follow him inilly grabbing one of them who screamed. Daugherty followed Machren and after a little subdued him and summoned the police.

In the meantime war neighbors gathered and were threatening the prisoner when the patrol wagon came to his rescue.

Similar complaints have come from Madison Square, Lincoln Park and these are also being investigated by the police.

American Oarsman Winner in England
HENDLEY, England, July 3.—Major Paul Withington of the American army defeated Colonel E. L. Saller of Great Britain in the King's wood sculls contest on the Henley course today. Major Withington won by three lengths. The time was 9 minutes, 28 seconds.

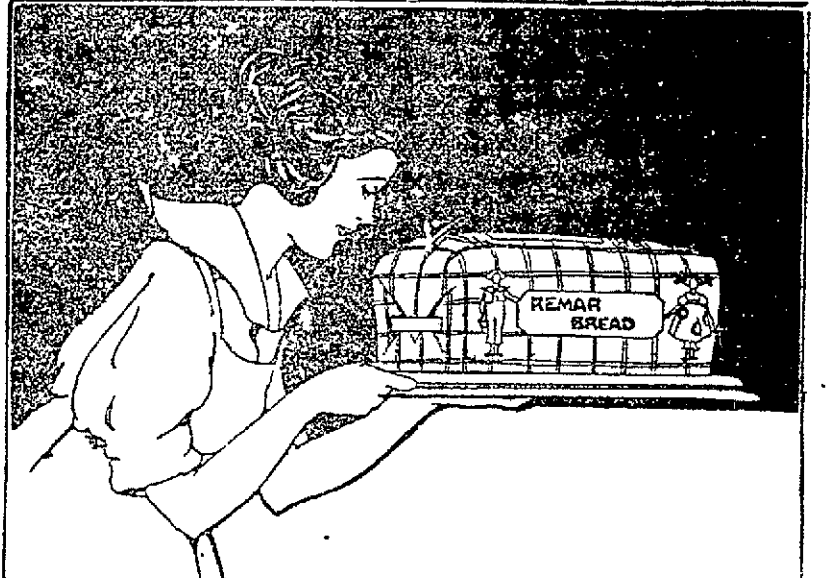

Two Californians in Casualty List
Names of two Californians appear among the casualties announced by the War Department today. Private George Fossahnan of Porterville was previously reported missing in action, is listed as killed in action. Warmer Emmet W. Brophy of San Francisco is reported wounded seriously.

How Many Women Do You Know
Who can say they are perfectly well? "I am tired all the time," "I am so nervous it seems as though I should fly," "I can hardly drag around today," and all such expressions are characteristic of women who have overtaken their strength with headaches, backache, nervousness, dragging-down pains, irregularities and the blues, symptoms of a female weakness, have developed. Women who are in this condition may rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore them to health and strength.—Advertisement.

GOOD ROADS APPROVED.

At the State-wide election Tuesday on the proposal to issue $40,000,000 in bonds a little more than 10 per cent of the total registered vote was cast. Perhaps this extraordinary apathy on the part of the qualified voter is just as important a matter of public consideration as the fact that the bond issue has been approved by a majority of about seven to one.

It is fruitless, however, to lament the lack of interest the voters exhibit at election time, even in so important a matter as a large bond issue. When only 10 per cent of the registered voters go to the polls one is led to speculate as to where all the noise from bomb-throwing and bonfire radicals about popular government, self-determination and protection for the minority comes from. The percentage of the citizens who in normal times exhibits an honest interest in keeping government of the people and by the people is ridiculously small.

In this case, however, the verdict was wisely rendered by the few. That the proposition was so clear as to invite no opposition to the bond issue accounted in large measure for the light vote called out.

The State highway administration now can take up at once the construction of the new highways authorized under the bond issue project. The $40,000,000 just made available, together with the moneys that will be allotted to the State from federal appropriations, to say nothing of the million dollars from private sources to be devoted to the construction of a motor road into the Yosemite Valley by way of El Portal, marks the beginning of a new decade of good road expansion.

Of course the work will be carried on as rapidly as possible. The highway commission has its work well organized, has a record of ten years' valuable experience behind it, and thus is expected to press the new undertakings with exemplary smoothness and expedition.

THE MOONEY STRIKE.

The decision of certain labor unions in several cities of the country to stage a protest strike of four days following the Fourth for the benefit of Thomas Mooney was unwisely reached and cannot be taken as representing the sober judgment of the rank and file of organized labor. It will result in benefit for no one.

After full consideration and extended debate the delegates to the recent convention of the American Federation of Labor at Atlantic City went on record by an overwhelming majority against the Mooney strike propaganda. President Samuel Gompers of the American Federation is opposed to such action, not out of any prejudice against Mooney, because he thinks and has zealously labored to obtain for this man the privilege of a new trial, but because he cannot see that any benefit will thereby accrue to Mooney or to organized labor. Local union labor leaders are also opposed to the strike.

Strikes against the proceedings and verdicts of the courts, with a view to causing a reversal of verdicts, is a policy that ought to receive the most serious consideration before it is applied in practice. One certain result of such a proceeding will be to create among the authorities and the majority of the people an iron determination that this form of coercive tactics shall not have any influence upon the judicial establishments of the country.

Organized labor justified public confidence and won new respect when it went on record by words and deeds for the ousting of Bolshevik agents and I. W. W. from its ranks. Yet strikes of protest against court proceedings are of the very essence of Bolshevism. And it is due to organized labor as a whole to have recalled the fact that through its official and recognized national machinery it has gone on record against the Mooney strike.

The four days of idleness and suspension of industry and business, which reflect no grievance of workers against employers, will not win a single benefit or friendly thought for the strikers. Nor will they bring the slightest advantage to the man convicted of complicity in the Preparedness Day bomb murders of three years ago. They will be dead loss. They may aid, however, some of the criminal anti-American efforts that foreign agents have linked to the campaign to secure a new trial for Mooney.

TRANS-OCEAN AIRCRAFT.

Barring accident the British dirigible R-34 will arrive in New York State from Scotland tomorrow morning. It will have crossed the Atlantic in three days, making as good time as the fast express trains.

The practicability of regular trans-Atlantic flights by this type of aircraft in all probability will be demonstrated by this performance. There is the greatest confidence that the verdict of the R-34 will be favorable to the feasibility of such flights.

The dirigible enjoys a greater freedom from accidents—is more competent to meet unfavorable atmospheric and climatic conditions than the airplane. Theoretically a regular trans-ocean service by dirigible faces no difficulty, in view of the knowledge gained and practical performances of aircraft during the war. But the question naturally arises as to what utility will such service be applied.

During the war there was much talk in Europe of using dirigibles as freight carriers. This was during the period of intensive U-boat piracy and the scarcity of ships. In normal times the cost and risk of sending freight across the ocean in airship would seem not to be economically practicable, but they can be used to great advantage in transmitting information between countries on this side of the Atlantic and the old world.

This alone is sufficient to justify the most energetic effort to bring about a regular and frequent trans-Atlantic aircraft service. Information is an important factor in business and commerce. The cables have served in a most valuable way to promote business and commerce. They have become indispensable in world intercourse. But they are still inadequate because of their costly service to meet the ordinary needs of the general public.

An aircraft mail service would provide vastly cheaper international communication, thereby promoting the knowledge of every nation about the affairs of other nations. It is a curious fault of human nature that the most important acts lose their interest before they are ten days old. We read, for example, cable dispatches from Europe with much more avidity than we do the measured accounts of correspondents sent by mail and published ten days after the happenings described. So it is with the peoples of Europe.

While we may look to the airship to render occasional value in carrying some precious cargo or in transferring government officials in time of emergency in world affairs, our more solid hopes must be based upon its usefulness as a new agency for the dissemination of information. In this respect business and government will derive the most benefit, but the people generally in all countries may also greet it as a valuable contribution of science to knowledge.

Every member of the California legislature who responds favorably to the request to waive salary and expenses if a special session of the legislature is called to ratify the suffrage amendment will earn the approbation of all the citizens. The logical reason given by Governor Stephens against a special session to act on suffrage is the expense that would be imposed upon the State. The legislators can get around this objection by giving their services free. It is a big thing to expect of a legislative official, but then the occasion is important and the sacrifice will have its reward in the gratitude of the women of California who desire that all American women have the privilege of voting at the presidential election in 1920.

EDUCATION, NOT MEDICATION.

Within the last few years the United States has made commendable progress in the conservation of health in some districts. The public has been taught in considerable sections of the country, for example, that epidemics of typhoid fever are avoidable. Science has reduced the danger of diphtheria. The mortality among infants has been brought down and is falling steadily. But in spite of these beneficial accomplishments many problems remain to be discussed by the health commissioners now in convention in Saratoga.

Education, not medication, should be the motto of the country in its attempt to prevent disease. A man or woman or child kept in health is much better off than a man or woman or child snatched from death by the physician's skill. Acute disease and chronic invalidism lay a heavy tax on the people. Unhappily all diseases cannot be avoided in our present imperfect state of knowledge. The Spanish influenza was not kept out of the country, though we had ample warning of its prevalence abroad. Probably it could not have been kept out by any practicable quarantine, but had the public known from the beginning how best to minimize its ravages many useful lives might have been spared. Recently the announcement was made that studies carried on during the period of its prevalence had increased the ability of science to fight pneumonia, a fearful enemy of mankind.

While we do not expect as well founded the more alarming prediction of worldwide pestilence to follow the reestablishment of peace, it is undoubtedly a fact that the disorganization resulting from war will cause outbreaks of disease in Europe against the introduction of which the United States must carefully guard itself. This guardianship should begin in Europe, be maintained at our ports of entry, extend to every hamlet in the country. Ignorance is the chief ally of disease, and by dispelling ignorance we can best protect ourselves. Only men and women ignorant of the purposes of health officers oppose their work and put obstacles in their way, and such ignorant men and women do not always dwell in unpretentious quarters of town. If such ignorance exacted its penalty only from the ignorant the case would be pitiful enough, but actually it menaces the whole community in which it exists.

When the individuals composing the population are brought generally to an understanding of the personal obligation which rest on them in the matter of disease prevention the most urgent victory for public health will have been won, and it is to be won through the eyes and ears rather than through the mouths of those who must learn it.—New York Sun.

NOTES and COMMENT

Returns indicate that every county in California voted in favor of good roads. This record should be an inspiration to the citizens of other States.

The travel into the Yosemite Valley to date is double that of last year. With better roads we see this year's record will be exceeded.

Eggs went higher in New Jersey yesterday than at any period in the history of the state. Two dozen were carried by air mail and delivered without a single breakage.

Governor Stephens has been admitted to the bar. Is he preparing to engage in constitutional debates before the United States Senate?

Mayor Rolph certainly has troubles. Five women seek appointment to a supervisory vacancy.

As another striking evidence of Oakland's commercial advancement, the bank clearings for June were the largest in the history of the city.

Senator Phelan has cabled to Japanese newspapers a statement of his position on the immigration question. Incidentally the senator's views were published quite extensively in the California press, which suggests the thought that the Japanese editors unwittingly helped "put over" some good home campaign material for the senator.

Vice-president Marshall and all the members of the cabinet (not excluding Burleson) will meet the President a few miles out at sea. There are those unkind enough to opine that the cabinet appears to have been "at sea" for some time.

California women are asking legislators to attend a special session, if called to ratify the suffrage amendment, and waive all salary and mileage. This will certainly be a crucial test of the loyalty of the solons to the cause.

The fate of beer and wine appears to be as uncertain as that of the Kaiser.

SPIRIT OF THE STATE PRESS

Some Chico men tell their wives everything and then wonder how the news gets out.—Chico Enterprise.

Edward Baylee has—or, rather, did—have a lightning rooster. The chandler jumped into Baylee's face with both spurs in action. He was outquipped by Baylee, but his rooster was countered and ran a spur into Baylee's leg. Baylee feinted and led the rooster for the head of the flock, and the next day there was a chicken people at the domicile.—Hillsboro Argus.

I visited one of the big salt water plunges the other day and found it filled with small boys. How different from the days when we youngsters didn't know what a concrete swimming pool or a bathing suit looked like, but confined our attention each summer to the old swimming hole down under the sycamore trees.—San Diego Union.

The summer will probably see most community life going on out of doors, at park and playground. The sports and entertainments will be a kind suited to the season—outdoor games, band concerts, park dancing and the like. But while people are getting together as they do in the summer, it is a fine time to start the project of good housing facilities for the community entertainments next winter. Few neighborhoods have auditorium, gymnasium or swimming pool and as such buildings take some time to construct, if they are to be ready for next fall it is none too soon to begin now.—Woodland Mail.

Orange county telephone users are embarked on a campaign for the establishing of a big mutual telephone company, with results that challenge attention. This movement has nothing to do with the present strike by telephone operators and linemen. It grew out of increased charges for service that stirred revolt in the neighboring county, and the plan for a mutual organization was well under way when the telephone strike tied up service. Orange county people were incensed over two advances in charges by the Pacific company. One was the monthly rental rate, which was boosted there as here and elsewhere, while the other and perhaps more disagreeable innovation was the five-cent charge in neighboring communities which had heretofore enjoyed free service, as we had here in San Bernardino and suburban districts.—San Bernardino Sun.

We feel we must urge again upon citizens of our town the need of a little more energy back of the broom and the scythe. The main trouble with us just now, good people, is that this man's town is entirely too dirty. Our streets are not spick and span like they ought to be, and we are prone to let the weeds in vacant spaces have their own way. Yet knowing, as we do, that there is no worse breeder of summer ailments than weeds.

We ought to see that gutters are cleaned out and that rubbish of all kinds is removed, and kept where it will not prove dangerous as a fire hazard and where it will not be the cause of unpleasant comment. There is no reason on earth why this town could not be as clean and as pretty and as attractive as any town in the world. Carelessness is our own fault, and there might as well be a lot of flowers blooming where there are unsightly places about the town now. And above all, let's keep the streets cleaner and the sidewalks free of paper and discarded hunks of tobacco, matches and the hundred and one other things we carelessly drop upon them.—Contra Costa County Courier.

UP IN THE AIR

The World's Most Beautiful Capital

"What goes on in Washington furnishes grist for the nation's newspapers all the year round, but just now Washington, the city, itself is getting unaccustomed publicity on two accounts," says a bulletin from the National Geographic Society.

"Senator Sherman of Illinois wants to move the capital to some mid-western city. Citizens of Washington, apparently oblivious of any such consummation, are waging a national publicity campaign for re-putation in Congress."

Aside from these political issues, the bulletin states, Washington probably has never been such a magnet for visitors as now and those who are coming as well as those who have gone will be interested in the following comparison of Washington with other world capitals written by Viscount James Bryce, former British ambassador to the United States:

"It is impossible to live in Washington and not be struck by some peculiar features and some peculiar beauties which your city possesses. No European city has so noble a catwalk in its vicinity as the great falls of the Potomac—a magnificent piece of scenery, which you will, of course, always preserve."

That, however, is the only beauty Petrograd has. The country is flat and in many places water-logged, owing to numerous pools and swamps. Though no living soul was there.
The window pane was slowly dimmed,
As 'twere by the frost's cold breath,

DR. PARSONS NOW IN LINE FOR BISHOP

By his election as bishop-coadjutor of the California Diocese of California last night, Rev. Edward Lamb Parsons, rector of St. Mark's parish in Berkeley, and a member of the Public Welfare board created by the supervisors of Alameda county, will become the next bishop of California. His election was made unanimous on the third ballot.

Seven candidates were nominated for the important ecclesiastical post. They were: Rev. E. L. Parsons, D. D., rector of St. Mark's parish, Berkeley, nominated by Rev. Charles L. Miller, Rev. W. T. Manning, D. D., rector of Trinity church, New York, nominated by H. C. Wyckhoff; Rev. George Craig Stewart of Evanston, Ill., nominated by Rev. Alexander Allen, D. D., rector of St. Paul's, Oakland; Rev. James E. Freeman, D. D., rector of St. Mark's, Minneapolis, nominated by A. S. Bacon of San Jose; Rev. W. H. Cambridge, rector of St. Matthew's church, San Mateo, nominated by Rev. H. E. Montgomery of Menlo Park; Light Rev. Nathaniel Seymour Thomas, D. D., bishop of Wyoming, nominated by L. F. Montgomery, rector of St. Nicholas in line for his high office in October. In the meantime he will remain rector of St. Mark's church.

Rev. Parsons received on the first ballot 29 votes from the clergy and 202 from the lay delegates in attendance at the diocesan convention held in the cathedral in San Francisco yesterday. The count was increased to 31 and 20 votes on the second ballot. Rev. George Craig Stewart of Evanston, Ill., was the nearest competitor.

TAKES OFFICE IN OCTOBER.
The Berkeley clergyman will assume his duties as assistant to Bishop Nichols in line for his high office in October. In the meantime he will remain rector of St. Mark's church.

Bishop Nichols, in his address before the convention declared that the two most important tasks before the diocese at the present time are the establishment of a training school for students and the initiation of a cathedral enterprise worthy of the church and San Francisco. He reviewed his half century of service in the church since his ordination.

The diocesan convention opened with special communion services in the cathedral at 10:30 a. m. The clergy and lay delegates assembled at the Trinity school in Taylor street and adjourned to the church, where they were seated behind the chancel rail. The liturgy was read by Dean J. Wilmer Gresham. The business session opened at 9 o'clock.

RECTOR SINCE 1904.
Rector of St. Mark's parish of Berkeley since 1904, Dr. Parsons has directed the activities of five Berkeley churches with unusual success during that time. Under his jurisdiction are St. Mark's church, All Souls chapel, St. Clement's chapel, St. Matthew's church and the Church of the Good Shepherd, located in various sections of Berkeley.

Dr. Parsons is a graduate of Yale with the class of 1888 and holds degrees also from the Union Theological Seminary, the Episcopal Theological School of Cambridge and the University of Berlin. Ordained in 1894, he was first assigned as assistant at Grace church, New York, later being transferred to Menlo Park, California, and then to San Mateo, going to Berkeley fifteen years ago.

Dr. Parsons recently returned from an absence of six months in Europe and Asia Minor, where he went as a member of a deputation from the commission of the League of Nations to the Near East.

He is a member of the American Theological Society and has taken an active part in civic work in Berkeley, being a member of the Berkeley Charity Commission and a director of various philanthropic organizations of the bay cities.

NEW SCHOOL LAWS URGED BY HUNTER

Special to The Tribune.

MILWAUKEE, July 3.—"Reconstruction education" and a program of educational legislation, embracing school budgets, thrift education, a national department of education, and various new features in modern school practice, are under discussion here before the National Education association. Dr. George S. Hunter, of the Teachers' school, Columbia university, is chairman of the meeting and more than 6000 educators from all parts of the United States are in attendance.

Vocational guidance work of Oakland, Cal., is to be discussed during the session by Fred M. Hunter, superintendent of schools of that city, who is delegate to the convention, and who has prepared an extensive paper on this work.

Hunter, who is chairman of the resolutions committee, has drafted a preliminary outline of his report. This will, it is estimated, suggest a complete program of national legislation and endorse the League of Nations as a non-partisan question. It will urge the passage of the Smith-Townsend bill providing a national department of education and a national organization of teachers on a professional basis. Plans for a year's study of civics and physical education for all youth at national expense is another point in the program before the session.

Hunter's report also urges state education systems, divorced from state politics, compulsory continuation schools, compulsory education to the age of eighteen, for unemployed, compulsory use of English as an instrument of instruction, and compulsory physical education; improved rural schools on a county unit basis; a minimum salary of $1000 per annum for all teachers, signed as assistant at Grace church, New York, later being transferred to Menlo Park, California, and then to San Mateo, going to Berkeley fifteen years ago.

Dr. Parsons recently returned from an absence of six months in Europe and Asia Minor, where he went as a member of a deputation from the commission of the League of Nations to the Near East.

He is a member of the American Theological Society and has taken an active part in civic work in Berkeley, being a member of the Berkeley Charity Commission and a director of various philanthropic organizations of the bay cities.

GIRL TELLS OF ABUSE; JURORS CLEAR MOTHER

Plans were made today by Attorney Philip M. Carey to obtain the release on bonds of Mrs. John Sowersby, charged with the murder of her husband, and whose action was decided by a coroner's jury last night to be justifiable homicide. On the strength of this finding Carey says that he hopes to arrange for bonds. Mrs. Sowersby's preliminary examination in the police court comes up next Wednesday.

After hearing a story of five months of terror, in which she was beaten frequently by her husband, and she and her 14-year-old daughter were threatened with death, the jury decided that the slaying of her husband was justifiable on the ground of self-defense.

Mrs. Sowersby's daughter, Frances, testified of being home when her mother was beaten and of locking herself in her own room to escape attacks, and of pleading with her mother to shoot Sowersby in self-defense rather than commit suicide. Mrs. Sowersby heard for the first time that her husband had been married before and had a child, when his brother, Robert Sowersby, testified to that effect.

SEEKS POLICEMAN'S AID.
The dead man's brother said that he had been a drinking man of unsteady temper, but denied that he was brutal. Neighbors testified to frequent sprees, told how the daughter had on one occasion sought the protection of a policeman on the street from her stepfather, and of occasions when Mrs. Sowersby had sat up nights, waiting for her husband, who did not come home.

"Often we talked of leaving home," said Mrs. Sowersby's daughter, "but we feared he would follow us and make good his threat to kill us if we ran away. Finally we decided that we could stand it no longer."

SUICIDE OR MURDER.
"It is either his life or mine," my mother said, and I replied, "not to kill herself, because I needed her. I knew it must end and was confident that mother had reached the end of her endurance when I came home from school one day and saw that she had obtained a revolver."

"I told me it unless I have to," she told me. I told her not to shoot herself.

"Sunday I came home and found that my mother had been beaten more severely than usual and had shot him. I am only sorry I was not there to do it myself."

SAW HIM INTOXICATED.
The tragedy occurred Sunday at the Sowersby home at 614 Eighteenth street. Last Friday, it was said, Mrs. Sowersby had tried to defend herself with a hammer, and some discussion arose as to which would have been the real cause of death. Mrs. R. A. Barry, living in the same house, testified having seen Sowersby frequently intoxicated, and Frank Read, a neighbor, corroborated this testimony.

Mrs. Sowersby married Sowersby, a shipworker, five months before the tragedy. Her troubles, she told the police, began immediately afterward.

BURGLARS LOOT HOME.
SAN FRANCISCO, July 3.—A house at 859 Mission street, here, the property of Mrs. Anna Smith, 2337 Virginia street, Berkeley, was looted by burglars, according to a complaint made by Mrs. Smith yesterday.

SHOW IS DELAYED UNTIL BILLS PAID

Putting over a successful production of the opera, "The Girl of the Year," which was to have been given last night at the Civic Auditorium in San Francisco and called time on the performance. A meagre audience waited impatiently from 8:15 till 9 o'clock for the curtain to go up. Not until 9 o'clock, when the "angel" arrived with a check book was the show able to get under way. It was impossible for the Civic Auditorium to take in the money, to declare the whole show off and refund the money to the patrons, because the money had been spent as fast as it was received.

NEW PIER TO END TRAFFIC JAM PROPOSED

ALAMEDA, July 3.—Reconstruction of the old Alameda pier and the construction of an auto road over the old pier to Webster street roadway in Alameda, were advocated by Councilman Al Latham before the council last night as a means of relieving the worst end auto traffic congestion on the Southern Pacific creek route. The city council went on record as favoring the plan and the city manager will take up the proposition with the railroad.

The proposed landing would be just south of the present Alameda pier. A roadway would have to be provided to Webster street from which traffic could take choice of routes, either further eastward through Alameda, or northward into Oakland.

Councilman Latham suggested the plan following the receipt of many complaints from the auto owners crossing the bay with their machines, especially Saturdays, Sundays and holidays.

RELIEF ON WEEK-ENDS.

The councilman said the extra auto accommodations might not be necessary or profitable during the week but that some relief was urgently needed for week ends and he believed that this plan could be economically and efficiently put into operation. The question of available ferryboats for the service was not included in the discussion.

The council meeting was a short session. District School Mothers' club and the Webster School Mothers' club filed petitions endorsing the proposed raise of pay for the Alameda teachers. Councilman Greene Major read the point that the petitions were not specific enough inasmuch as definite increase of salary was not asked for. He thought the petitioners should recite more definitely the ideas of the petitioners.

The Barnes & Tibbitts Shipbuilding Co. has a tax penalty refunded over a mixup regarding receipt, or non-receipt of tax bills when applied for.

CROSSING DANGER.

The Southern Pacific will be asked to halt all cross-town cars coming round the Eighth street curve from Oakland into Central avenue, owing to the possibility of the cross-town cars flashing round the curve and striking autos on the avenue. There is a wig-wag signal at the crossing but Councilman Al Latham holds that this signal is not regarded generally or even recognized by motorists who watch the main line tracks for ferry trains but forget, or do not know, about the cross-town tracks on Eighth street. The company will be asked to halt all cars all the motorman makes sure some confused or uninformed autist is not in the track of the car.

The city hall attaches will have

Oakland Boy Wins in Paris Games Gen. Pershing Sees U. S. Victories

PERSHING STADIUM, Paris, July 3.—American athletes won the 1600-meter relay race in the international games here today. The Australian team was second, the French team third. The time was 3 minutes and 20.4 seconds.

H. Liveridge, Oakland, Cal.; Ed. Caughy, Ukiah, Cal., and Wallace Maxfield, Bloomfield, N.J., qualified for the finals of the shot-put.

General John J. Pershing today saw an American horse and rider win the individual competition in the military prize jumping event at the stadium. Lieutenant-Colonel H. D. Chamberlain, U. S. A., rode Negra, a seven-year-old American mare, over fifteen obstacles in beautiful form.

The team prize jumping competition was won by Belgians, who were mounted on Irish and English horses.

General Pershing brought the worst weather the stadium has seen. No sooner was he seated than the thunder began which elicited from the doughboys the remark: "As soon as 'Black Jack' arrives the barrage starts."

Scudder, Spink and Eby, Americans, qualified for the final in the 300-meter run, Scudder winning the heat in two minutes and three-fifths of a second.

WOMAN TRIES TO DIE THIRD TIME

Rose E. Burgess, 35, formerly residing at the home of her stepfather at 3524 Fourteenth avenue, attempted to commit suicide at Los Angeles yesterday afternoon by turning on the gas in her room in a Hollywood apartment house.

The attempt was said to be the third within a few weeks. The woman was a former inmate of Agnew, being kept at that State hospital for ten months during 1916 and 1917, when she was released because it was supposed that she had been cured. She went to Los Angeles on January 1 of this year with $300 which her stepfather gave her. Mrs. H. E. Bowen, a friend in Los Angeles, yesterday swore to an insanity complaint after her last attempt at suicide.

California's petroleum production in May averaged 276,931 barrels daily.

SOCIETY FOLK FIGHT FLAMES TO SAVE HOMES

BERKELEY, July 3.—Society matrons in the fashionable Claremont region turned fire fighters yesterday afternoon to save their homes from a grass fire which raged over more than a mile of territory.

When Berkeley's fire fighters arrived on the scene they found members of the Berkeley colony fighting the blaze with sacks. The firemen labored for almost two hours before the blaze was extinguished and the costly homes were safe.

The blaze started at Hillcrest and Eucalyptus roads and swept over to the Uplands before it could be checked. Among the homes in the path of the fire were those of J. M. Jine, Henry W. Taylor, H. C. B. Cobb, Fred G. Athearn and many more.

LEGION WILL AID STATE IF NEED ARISES

The American Legion of California is pledged to aid the national and state governments, in the following telegram sent today by Chairman Henry G. Mathewson, of Alameda, to Governor William D. Stephens. The telegram says:

"The American Legion, which is a national organization of former service men, soldiers, sailors and marines, pledges you full support of both national organization and the branch in this state, in your effort to maintain 100 per cent Americanism, based on law and order."

"This support is particularly pledged you and all those associated with you for good government on this, the first Independence Day after having finished the job for which we entered our country's service."

"HENRY G. MATHEWSON, Chairman of the Executive Committee, American Legion."

Chairman Mathewson said: "This is just a Fourth of July message of the American Legion of California to the governor," but it was indicated that the American Legion's support was proffered in anticipation of the threatened terrorism tomorrow on the part of I. W. W. and other Bolsheviki organizations.

FRANKIE BURNS AND JIMMY DUFFY WILL BOX FOUR ROUNDS AT THE EMERYVILLE ARENA

ED SMITH PREDICTS DOWNFALL OF CHAMP WILLARD TOMORROW

Noted Chicago Referee and Writer Can See Nothing but Dempsey in the Big Clash

By ED W. SMITH
TOLEDO, Ohio, July 3.—At last we are up to the big day when Jess Willard will defend his championship fighting title against one of the best looking challengers in the history of the game, Jack Dempsey, of Salt Lake City, and not later than 4 o'clock on the afternoon of the glorious Fourth we should know absolutely who is the best pugilist in the entire world. We know now all right, but the fighters insist upon going through the motions just the same in order to collect the money.

It is slated for but twelve rounds and there will be a referee decision at the finish if both men are on their feet at the finish of that distance, but between such hitting men as these are, we should arrive at a definite conclusion along somewhere between the fifth and the twelfth rounds.

As has been the case in a number of championship fights, this one will bring together a rather elderly athlete whose inactivities have practically put him into a state of decay, and a young, strapping athlete who has been the wonder of the world in the knockout line and the total despair of all the other heavyweights.

JACK DEMPSEY HAS CLEARED THE FIELD.

As a matter of fact, so powerful has the Dempsey smash been in the last couple of years that he has reduced the field of big fellows down to one—the man he is to meet tomorrow. A match between Dempsey and anybody else in this entire world would be pretty much of a joke at this time with the single exception of George Carpentier and nobody seems to have a very clear idea whether he will ever be able to knock Dempsey out after years of tough work in the French army.

So then it would appear that the crowd of fight fans that will assemble at the huge arena to watch the proceedings will see the best men in the world. It is not as if it should be for the champion is supposed to be the best man and the challenger is supposed to be the best man, but the opinion on this fight will prove that directly the opposite is the case.

Willard's age and his vast bulk have been the two bones of argumentative contention since the day he began to box. He has been out four weeks ago to observe the final preparations of the big fight. He is big, but he is not as big as he is supposed to be. He is a "big" man, but he is not as big as he is supposed to be. He is a "big" man, but he is not as big as he is supposed to be.

Interested Parties Will Discuss the Rules That Will Govern Fight on the Fourth

TOLEDO, July 3.—Rules governing the heavyweight championship fight between Jess Willard and Jack Dempsey in Tex Rickard's $150,000 arena here tomorrow are to be officially interpreted at a meet today attended by Ollie Pecora, the referee; Rickard and Major A. J. Drexel Biddle, judges of the contest; the boxers themselves and Jack Kearns, manager of the challenger.

Previous to the meeting, Willard expressed himself as being willing to box under any rules, but suggested that the contestants be permitted to box as long as an arm is free, to break at once at the command of the referee and to break clean.

Butting on the outcome of the bout has proven surprisingly light to date. It was estimated this morning by one of the foremost wagers on the outcome of the fight that there was not much more than $10,000 in actual stakes in the hands of the various betting concerns.

In some quarters sentiment appeared to be leaning toward the champion for while Dempsey backers were offering even money on the challenger a day or two ago, they are now asking that Willard lay 10 to 8.

Willard Money Is Scarce as Scotch Highs

Local Bettors Favor Jack Dempsey, Who Promises to Be Favorite

By BOB SHAND

It is even money and take your pick on Broadway this morning with a preponderance of Dempsey money. One bettor with five hundred berries in his kick had to shave the odds to get down on Dempsey and there is enough Dempsey dough still uncovered in this man's town to feed and shave a million Bolsheviks.

The San Francisco supporters of Dempsey have about given up all hope of getting odds and they will probably surrender today and let the roll ride at even money.

From the quoted price of ten to seven the week ago the odds have gradually tightened and last night the man who asked for the edge wasn't given a chance. There were but a few short wagers laid at ten to seven when betting opened most of the real bettors waiting for a better price.

The Dempsey people, figuring on precedent and the fact that Willard is the heavyweight champion of the world, were more anxious to bet while the Willard backers hesitated until they got even money.

EXPERTS AGREE

Willard is slow. That is the opinion of Toledo regarding Willard's condition. He has a whole lot to do with the price. He has trained himself for this bout. He has taken orders from no one and the result is that he is in poor physical condition. That is the opinion of the experts.

FOURTEEN LITTLE FOUR-ROUNDERS TO DON PADDED MITTS

All Sorts of Scrappers, From Heavies to Flyweights, Will Perform at Emeryville

Frankie Burns is all set up over the yarns that have been spread broadcast that he is a sure loser when he meets Jimmy Duffy at the Emeryville arena tomorrow afternoon. Frankie is quite peeved and he promises to take it out on the youngster Friday.

The boys who have been watching Duffy develop know that Jimmy is about the shiftest boy of his weight now performing here. Burns doesn't know anything about that. When Frankie went overseas Jimmy was his roustabout in the gymnasium and was a good sparring partner. That's all that Frankie knew about Jimmy.

Then when Burns returned from the big scrap he discovered that Jimmy was the new "Pride of Oakland" and he at once wanted to know "where they got that stuff at." They told him that Duffy was a wonderfully improved boy; that he had licked all the aspiring champions in these parts and was considered a contender for the lightweight championship of the world.

BURNS SAW DUFFY BOX ALICE NACK.

Frankie got many an awful of this war character, but still he was not convinced that Duffy was so much of a muckhead, he wanted to see for himself, so when Jimmy fight was the worst that little Jimmy has made in years. He was either trying to let Nack make a shining or he was scared of the "New Yorker." Anyhow, Jimmy missed more in that fight than he did in his six previous contests and everything he tried to do he did the wrong way. It is a safe bet that Duffy cannot fight any worse than he did against Nack so the Duffy that Burns will see in the opposite corner Friday night will be a much improved boxer.

FRANKIE NOT RIGHT IN MILLER FIGHT.

Burns himself made a poor fight in his first start with Joe Miller but Frankie declares he just judged that fight under his belt. He had been over in France working with a pack and shovel building roads and he was not in the gymnasium and he was not in the gymnasium and he was not in the gymnasium.

He jabbed quite often with the left but when there was a chance to follow the left up with a right he hesitated until the opening was too late. Frankie believes that Jimmy was a much overrated boxer. "He hasn't got a thing," declared Burns after the bout, "and if I ever get him in the ring with me I will be the sorriest day of young Duffy's life. After all the touting he got I expected to see him give the old fellow a good beating but he was lucky to get the decision let alone give Alice a whaling. If Duffy cannot fight any better than that then he had better lay off me for I'll sure give him a spanking."

What Burns said about Duffy that night was fair enough, but some good friend of Frankie's should tip him off that the Nack was matched to box Alice Nack at the Auditorium. Burns was right at the ringside. When he saw made Frankie believe that Jimmy was a much overrated boxer. "He hasn't got a thing," declared Burns after the bout, "and if I ever get him in the ring with me I will be the sorriest day of young Duffy's life. After all the touting he got I expected to see him give the old fellow a good beating but he was lucky to get the decision let alone give Alice a whaling. If Duffy cannot fight any better than that then he had better lay off me for I'll sure give him a spanking."

Heavyweights Finish Training for Million Dollar Toledo Fight

By H. C. HAMILTON, United Press Staff Correspondent

TOLEDO, Ohio, July 3.—Almost over with their strenuous training in preparation for their July 4 bout, the pugilists on whom the eyes of the sporting world are centered, marked time today.

Time of starting the bouts was changed today, when Ad Thacher, president of the Toledo Athletic Club, announced that two prelims would be dispensed with. This will set the first bout at noon.

Behind the screen doors of the Overland Club, Jack Dempsey, challenger of Jess Willard, the world's heavyweight champion, sat cheerfully optimistic. His 245-pound rival lolled about the sun porch of a house in the best residential district of Toledo.

Dempsey's smile was to beam all over the Overland club today. He had planned nothing. He was merely waiting for the tap of the gong that would send him into the greatest victory ever scored in pugilism or into a defeat of bitter memories.

Willard will take a motor ride. The huge champion never has liked the plaudits of the multitude and the obsequies of a victory. He wants solitude and he feels it was the hum of a gasoline motor under his feet. No one will be allowed to disturb either fighter.

Business Outlook Is Optimistic Undue Speculation the Only Danger

WASHINGTON, July 3.—Optimism as the business outlook, reported today in the Federal Reserve Board's monthly statement of conditions, was tempered by a renewed warning against undue speculation. "In nearly all the districts," the board's statement said, "the opinion is expressed that the prospects for a successful and prosperous year, with a very large output of goods and almost unprecedented financial results, both for manufacturers and agricultural and laborers are positive. The possibility that speculation may be carried too far and may exert an injurious influence, aided and abetted by the existence of free credit and speculative tendencies, appears as the principal offsetting influence in the situation. Prices continued to rise throughout June, the board's statement showed an enormously heavy demand for goods for export had rendered products in many lines scarce. In nearly all districts it was reported business men had decided they could rely upon heavy demand and continuously sustained prices for some time to come. The general feeling of apprehension entertained early in this year was disappearing, and business men were entering into large commitments for fall and winter.

Fire Peril Pointed Out by Chief Prevention Is Urged by Whitehead

"Sparks are always dangerous; guard against them." "Make fire prevention scouts of your boys and girls." "Eliminate all dry grass and brush fires." These are the three warnings in the new fire prevention bulletin, issued by Fire Chief Elliott Whitehead, which is being distributed to all fire departments in the city.

ASKS SCOUTS' AID

Fire prevention is requested by the boy scouts in the fire chief's bulletin. He holds that grass fires and such blazes could be cut down materially by the organization of the youths during vacation to cooperate with the department. Three due to carelessness, he said, were cut down in Spokane by the cooperation of the boy scouts.

DANGER IN DRIED GRASS

"There are too many dried grass and brush fires," he says, "that thoughtful consideration, constant care and positive action are necessary to overcome this danger. Practically every dry season witnesses the destruction of human lives and valuable property and frequently the wiping out of entire towns and cities because of the dried grass and brush menace."

LOS ANGELES, July 3.—Completing an eight-year course of studies in exactly half that time, Ernest Burris Bingham, 12 years of age, son of Mrs. H. Ernest Bingham of 110 South Kern street, has made a scholarship record that has attracted wide attention.

Leaving the school of Our Lady of Loretto this week Ernest will enter the Jesuit college in September on credits granted by the school and will plunge into a collegiate course.

Mrs. Elizabeth Lansing Burri, a first cousin of Secretary of State, Robert Lansing, is the boy's grandmother.

Although always remarkably studious, Ernest is athletic, rugged and strong.

The study of law has a great appeal for the boy and he delighted in delving into civil cases. He will try to enter a law office when he finishes his college course.

At 3 years of age Ernest showed a lively interest in newspapers and at 3½ years he was able to read.

Work to Start Soon

MARTINEZ, Ints.—The first resolution for the new concrete streets that will be constructed throughout the city under the general improvement plan contemplated by the city trustees, was passed last night. The resolution relates to Escobar street and takes in that portion lying between Pine street and the city limits at Fairview. The balance of the street will be constructed at a later date under a different proceeding.

This is the first definite move for the general street improvement and comes after considerable preliminary work on the part of Engineer Farley. It is understood that the grade of the street will be cut down slightly and that it will be straightened at the Jones corner. Two badly needed improvements before the street can be in its most acceptable shape.

Negotiations with Attorney M. R. Jones have been going on for some time relative to the straightening of the street.

reef. It is understood that a satisfactory arrangement of the matter has been reached and the work will be advertised for bids in the near future.

Lightship on Ways for Overhauling

ALAMEDA, July 3. — The Blunt reef lightship is on the marine ways at the Barnes & Tibbitts' shipyard undergoing an annual and general overhauling. The stubby, stoutly built lightship with its odd equipment and unusual appearance created considerable interest among Alamedans who saw the lightship on the ways.

100 WOUNDED
CZECHS REACH
CAMP KEARNY

SAN DIEGO, July 3.—Bringing more than 1100 invalided Czech-Slovak soldiers, the steamship Nankin, formerly the Pacific coast liner Congress, arrived here at 8 o'clock this morning from Vladivostok.

The Czech-Slovak soldiers arriving on the Nankin are all veterans of the great war in Europe. Originally drafted into the Austrian army, they deserted to the Russians at the first opportunity and fought against the Germans. When Kerensky was overthrown and the Bolsheviks gained control of Russia, the Czech-Slovak soldiers fought the Lenin-Trotsky armies and eventually gained their way to Siberia, where they joined the allied soldiers.

Upon their arrival here today they were accorded a hearty welcome by civil and military officials. Bands from the naval air station and from Camp Kearney were on hand, together with Red Cross delegations and members of the local Czech-Slovak society. The veterans were given cigarettes and delicacies and every man on the ship was presented also with a bouquet of flowers. Later the men were transferred to a special train and taken to Camp Kearney, where they are to remain an indefinite time for treatment. Eventually they will be sent across the continent and then on to their homes.

Odessa Captured by Ukrainian Troops

COPENHAGEN, July 3.—The Ukrainian press bureau announced today that after a desperate battle of four days between the Poles and the Ukrainians the latter occupied Odessa.

This is the first intimation of fighting between the Poles and the Ukrainians in the Odessa region.

Stage Is Set for Joyous Fourth
Oakland to Play Host to Eastbay

All arrangements are complete for the great July 4th celebration. Oakland will entertain all the Eastbay communities in the finest program to be given for many years. Of chief interest will be the barbecue, sports program, musical and literary exercises which have been arranged for the men in uniform. More than 2500 soldiers from the Presidio will be among the city's guests. They will be waited upon at the big barbecue by fifty girls in uniform and the 3200 pounds of beef steaks will be broiled by experts under the direction of C. E. Schmidt.

A big fireworks program will be given at Lake Merritt. More than 300 convalescent soldiers from Letterman hospital will be the guests at the park. The program at Lakeside park, at the Municipal Auditorium and the Auditorium grounds will be the most spectacular ever held in Oakland and will last from early afternoon until well into July 5.

More than 200,000 people are expected to take part in the celebration. Lieutenant W. R. Gray, well-known here, who was overseas for two years in the service, will fly over Oakland and Lake Merritt, beginning at 2:30 o'clock. He will perform many thrilling stunts. The committee received word today from Major Morrissey, stationed at the Presidio, that an army aviator would be sent to Oakland and he will be with Gray in thrilling the throngs who will take part in the celebration.

SWIMMING RACES. All swimming races will be held on the Twelfth-street side of the lake, near the museum, beginning at 3:30 o'clock. These will consist of events for the army and navy men and will include 50, 100, 220 and 440-yard races for handsome trophies.

From 7 to 9 o'clock additional sports will be held on Lake Merritt, including surf-board contests, tub races and similar events. At 9 o'clock the lake will be illuminated and hundreds of craft, gaily decorated and lighted with Japanese lanterns, will take part.

There will be a pie-eating contest on the Twelfth-street side of the lake at 4 o'clock. All men in uniform and former soldiers will be admitted free to the league ball game at 10 o'clock in the morning. Former soldiers presenting credentials at the Soldiers and Sailors' Defense Club will get passes. A big fireworks display will be held at Lakeside in the evening.

PROGRAM FOR DAY. The complete program is as follows:

10:30 a. m.—Ball game at Coast League grounds, Oakland vs. Sacramento. Every soldier and sailor or marine in uniform is admitted free to this game. Other service men who are without uniform may obtain a free pass at the Defenders' Club, Thirteenth and Harrison streets.

12 p. m.—Literary exercises, Auditorium theater. Poem by Fred A. Campbell to be read by L. D. Inskeep; Declaration of Independence, to be read by William N. Friend; introductory remarks by W. E. Gibson, chairman of the committee; Victory chorus, 300 girls from girls' division of War Camp Community Service, direction of H. J. Brouwer, song leader. Charles A. McKee, orator of the day; Desaix McCloskey, soloist, in several songs, including "Glad to Be Back Once More," with W. W. Carruth at the piano; community singing led by V. I. Wyer.

2:30 p. m.—Lakeside park band concert, municipal band. Swimming events at Twelfth-street side of the lake for soldiers and sailors.

MUSIC FIESTA,
4TH PROGRAM
AT BERKELEY

BERKELEY, July 3.—Berkeley will celebrate the anniversary of the birth of American Independence with a community Fourth of July festival to be held in the Greek Theater at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

The program for the day will be featured by the presentation of "A Chant of Victory," written and composed by Arthur Farwell, former head of the music department at the University of California. Making its debut in public in the chant will be Berkeley's recently organized community chorus, of which Professor Farwell is conductor.

MAYOR WILSON SPEAKS. Tomorrow's program will be presented jointly by the music and drama committee of the University of California and the municipal authorities, with Mayor Louis Bartlett delivering the opening address of the afternoon.

Assisting the chorus in the various solo parts of the chant will be Homer Henley, baritone; Miss Ruth Jensen in the role of "America" and Professor Samuel J. Hume as the "poet," readers of the production, while the accompanists will be Ralph De Goller and Lincoln S. Bachelder.

Following are the musical numbers of the production, in a number of which the audience will be asked to join:

MUSICAL NUMBERS.

"America" (audience and chorus).
Belgian National Hymn (chorus).
(F. Compennout).
"The Marseillaise" (audience and chorus) (Rouget de Lisle).
"God Save the King" (chorus).
"Tipperary" (audience and chorus).
(Harry Williams).

"Soldier, Soldier" (Arthur Farwell).
Mr. Henley (refrain by the chorus).
"Star-Spangled Banner" (audience and chorus).
"Over There" (audience and chorus) (George Cohan).
"Yankee Doodle" (audience and chorus).
"Old Hundred" (audience and chorus).
"Tenting Tonight" (audience and chorus) (Way and Kittredge).
"O Captain, My Captain" (chorus) (Arthur Farwell).
"My Old Kentucky Home" (audience and chorus) (Stephen Foster).
"March! March!" (chorus) (Arthur Farwell).
"We Are Here, Lafayette" (chorus) (Gertrude Wheeler Beckman).
"After the Battle" (chorus) (Arthur Farwell).
"Breathe on Us, Breath of God" (chorus) (Arthur Farwell).
"Hosanna" (chorus) (Arthur Farwell).
"Our Country's Prayer" (Arthur Farwell).
Mr. Henley and chorus.
"Joy! Brothers, Joy!" (chorus) (Arthur Farwell).
"Battle Hymn of the Republic" (audience and chorus).

Fourth of July programs are also planned for San Pablo Park and Live Oak playground for Friday, a general celebration of the national holiday being arranged for the children.

WILSON PLANS
HOLIDAY TALK
BY WIRELESS

ABOARD U. S. S. GEORGE WASHINGTON, July 3.—President Wilson made arrangements today for his arrival in New York about 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

The President was still working on his message to Congress and was preparing a message to the people for delivery July 4.

Before the George Washington's arrival the President probably will deliver a speech from the prominent deck of the liner, to be transmitted to America later by wireless.

CLOSER BRAZIL TIES. President Wilson today sent a wireless message to President-elect Epitacio Pessoa of Brazil, who has been visiting the United States, regretting his absence and expressing the wish that the visit may draw America and Brazil into closer relations. The text of the message follows:

"I sincerely hope that your excellency's visit to the United States has been in every way agreeable to you. I regret that I was not there to welcome you on your arrival and I wish now to bid you a temporary goodbye with the sincerest best wishes. It was a pleasure to know you in Paris and I am sure you must feel how warm the friendship of the people of the United States for the two countries into closer and closer relationship."

RECEPTION APPROVED.

WASHINGTON, July 3.—Latest messages from President Wilson approve the plan of an informal reception by a committee of citizens on his arrival at New York at Carnegie hall, Secretary Tumulty said today. After that the President will come direct to Washington.

Force Victim Into Auto; Then Rob Him
SAN FRANCISCO, July 3.—Forced at the point of a revolver to enter an automobile which contained two hold-up men, at Lake street and Eighteenth avenue, Paul J. Emree, 1380 Geary street, reported to the police that he had been taken to a lonely spot in Golden Gate park late last night and robbed. Emree obtained a good description of the men, who are believed by the police to be part of the quartet that held up and murdered Charles Nelson in the same district Monday night.

Motor vehicles classed as common carriers under the new state of Idaho law are said to be ignoring the section requiring them to obtain licenses. Only a small proportion of the 400 such vehicles have obtained licenses.

Daintily Clad Feet on Brass Rail
Dry Law Opens Bars to Women

Oakland society folk have a new recreation now. They can go down to the corner saloon, put daintily slipped feet on a brass railing and laugh at their husbands.

That may appear to be an exaggeration, but it is a fact that many Oakland women who live temperate lives from saloons are taking advantage of the opportunity offered by a "dry nation."

Thousands of dollars have been spent to fit up many of the saloons, and some of them contain paintings of artistic merit, besides a large amount of fancy decorations. In addition, the women are glad of the chance to gaze upon those places that proved so attractive to their men folk. Under chandeliers of colored glass and shining brass work the women can fondle the "kickless" concoctions in the shiny little glasses and marvel on the world's progress.

PROMISES TO BRING VICE. One of the best-known of Oakland's liquor emporiums a frequent visitor in the halcyon days dropped today, and after a "jolt" of apple juice, announced:

"Well, I'm going to bring my wife down to see you. Why don't you have little tables put in so the women can be comfortable? They're not accustomed to a brass rail."

Ex-Soldier's Body to Be Taken to New York

ALAMEDA, July 3.—The body of W. F. Murphy, who died from injuries received in diving at an Alameda swimming beach a week ago Sunday, was sent east today. The body goes to New York, where Murphy's mother lives, and is accompanied by Murphy's mother, Jack Williams.

Murphy and Williams were in the military service together, and returned a few weeks ago from overseas, being mustered out of service in Texas. They were en route home to New York, by way of California, when Murphy was injured. In diving he struck the body of Walter Gant, who was already in the swimming tank. Murphy's spine was injured, and he was unconscious and in a critical condition from submersion in the water when rescued. He died two days after the accident.

Municipal Control of 'Phones Is Urged

BERKELEY, July 3.—A request for municipal control of the telephone system as a means of ending the present strike, is being given today by the Berkeley city officials, following the appearance of a citizens' committee headed by Vincent Surr before the council yesterday.

Surr, representative of the committee, urged that the city operate its own phone system and pay to employees the wage desired.

A report will probably be made at next Tuesday's meeting of the council.

TWO CHILDREN
RESCUED FROM BURNING HOME

The heroic rescue by Joseph Ferreira, 4898 East Fourteenth street, of two children of Mrs. Tony Brähma, age one and three, respectively, in a fire that threatened to destroy the Brähma residence last night, was reported today.

The rescuer was passing when he saw smoke issuing from the house. He knocked, but no one answered. Forcing open the lock, Ferreira rushed into the smoke filled house. Huddled in a corner of the kitchen he found the two little children. They were almost suffocated. Grasping one in each arm, the rescuer carried them outside, where they were resuscitated.

The mother was at a store near by, when the fire started. She had only been gone a few minutes and believed the children had been tampering with a box of matches. The fire started in a crevice between a trunk and the wall. The fire ate its way to the roof. The loss was estimated at $500. Ferreira was commended for his brave action by the police.

LETTER CARRIERS'
PICNIC SUNDAY

To provide the funds whereby members of their association may receive a sick benefit of $10 a week when unable to work as well as a death benefit, the San Francisco Letter Carriers have announced the annual picnic for Sunday at Shell-mound park.

The funds of the organization were depleted during the epidemic period. A program of sports, vaudeville, music and dancing has been arranged by a committee, of which William H. Barry is chairman.

The Letter Carriers were organized in January, 1885, as a mutual aid association.
